Delivery: Instructor Led Class or Live Instructor Webinar

Course Description:

This updated for 2024-25 Non-Language Specific, six (6) credit hour, Instructor led course*, will outline and familiarize the Student with Professional Interpreter protocol and terminology used in conjunction with courtroom testimony and investigations specific to Organized Crime, Street Gang and Prison Investigation Units. Students will gain a broad understanding of a variety of criminal investigations and investigation specific terminology and processes related to organized crime and street crime specific activities.

This class will cover current organized crime and street gang terminology/phrases, lifestyle, prison organization, gang proliferation and the seemingly unending variants to gang initiation, participation and cultural diversity in today's street gang environment. Gone are the days of local "gang structure" and "turf" ownership. Students will gain specific knowledge into the globally diversified criminal activity and trends that criminal Street gangs and associated organized crime elements are involved in. These crimes include, but are not limited to narcotics, weapons, sex trafficking and many other criminal activities. Additionally, this class will give a general overview on how social media and current technology has increased efficiency and new avenues of criminality which is a mainstay topic in criminal court proceedings and associated investigations at the state, federal and even international level.
