Teacher Workday

“Teacher Workday” means there is no school for students, but various employee groups participate in professional learning, training and/or other work-related obligations.

Inclement Weather Days

Generally, the first three instances of schools closing due to inclement weather or other reasons would not require a makeup day for students. This is because our total instructional hours for the year exceed the minimum required by the state. In the event that makeup days for students do become necessary, CHCCS would look at available Teacher Workdays as a first step.

Holidays and Observances

When applicable, CHCCS strives to observe holidays such as Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Diwali, the Lunar New Year and Eid al-Fitr through the strategic placement of a limited number of Teacher Workdays (no school for students.) Additional holidays are observed by virtue of occurring on weekends or when students have full weeks off such as Thanksgiving week, Winter Break and Spring Break. Unfortunately, public school districts are unable to observe every holiday and still meet minimum instructional-hours requirements for students given the constraints of North Carolina school calendar laws.

Calendar Law

When creating a school year calendar, all public school districts in North Carolina are subject to the state’s Calendar Law.
