

The Road

KEY C

Verse 1

Intro C/F/C

C                      Bb                      F                      C

There is a journey that I must set out on the road leads to you

C                      Bb                      F                      C

The pathway is narrow it is not well marked in fact it's rarely been used

Gm                                      Bb                      F                      C

There's mountains and valleys the enemy's waiting but you'll make a way of escape

Gm                                      Bb                      F                      C

It's treacherous dangerous sounds so exciting I can hardly wait

Chorus

C                      Bb    F                      C

There is a road it does not go east or west

C                      Bb                      F                      C

There is a road takes me out of this wilderness

Gm                                      Bb                      F                      C

It's the highway to heaven a pathway to glory but I won't be walking alone

Bb                      F                      C

The road that leads me home

INTERLUDE BETWEEN CHORUS 2 AND VERSE 3
