NATIONAL BOWLING LEAGUE

The President's Message.....

Good evening my friends and fellow bowlers!

As we wrap up another season, it's time to look back at all the strikes, spares, and... garbage Bobby Mac hits. But hey, it's the effort that counts, right?

First off, shoutout to Ralph for hosting this year's annual meeting and draft. We appreciate your hospitality. Special thanks to Erik for taking on the 2nd VP duties, organizing social nights, and our first banquet at the PPL Center. Gordon Ramsay himself could not have catered things better!

Gents, we made a BIG change this year, moving to Bardon Lanes after 25+ years at the Sokals. It's been an adjustment, but we're getting the hang of it—thanks for hanging in there with the switch, folks.

Speaking of change, this year we had a huge milestone: we were back to fielding six five-man teams for the first time since the 2014-2015 season. With that we welcomed a bunch of new faces: Ben Hugo, Ben Newman, Jim Duffy, Eric Sabo, Dean Paulus, and Scottie James. Plus, we were lucky enough to have some old friends back—Mike Margle, Rob Stehly, and “Angry” Andy Spatig. It's like a reunion, but with more drinking, more bowling and fewer awkward hugs.

Speaking of awkward, big congrats to Mike Margle for winning the “Tank for Ethan” sweepstakes and securing his spot once again as team captain for next year! Great now we can hear him complain about getting tapped starting at the annual meeting! Thanks Ethan! Pro tip Mike, if they consistently don't all fall, you're doing something wrong!

Now, let's talk numbers—because who doesn't love stats, right? We did see a little dip in our league average this year, but it was to be expected with the move! We ended up with a 172.87 average—down from last year's 179.88. Not to worry though, 11 of our 30 bowlers did improve their averages, and two—Kyle Elliott and Rod Seifert—kept things steady with the exact same average from the previous year. Way to go “team consistency!”

But here's where it gets fun: we had 16 700-series scores this year. That's a lot of strikes folks. And though we didn't hit any 800s, we did get a perfect game from... well, yours truly! NO worries, I'll be signing autographs throughout the evening. Erik unfortunately just missed his 300 with a devastating/spectacular 298!

NATIONAL BOWLING LEAGUE

In other news, Ethan took home the high series title with a 794, and not to be outdone, he also earned the Most Improved award with a +17 increase. That's not bad for only showing up half the season, huh? I think a PED test is in order before each week next year!

On the team side, the Phillies and Brewers were the only two teams with more wins than losses. The Phillies took the crown with the highest team average at .908, a high game of 1078, and a series total of 3011. Ethan once again took home the most points with a whopping 90 with Buzz coming in second with a very respectable 86.5. That's some serious bowling right there, folks.

As for beer frames, the Pirates and Cardinals TIED for the first time ever—or at least, the first time anyone can remember.

Now, let's talk about the playoffs! What an exciting finish to the season! The Mets earned a wildcard spot and fought hard for a shot at the title. But in a dramatic roll-off, the Brewers came out on top, securing their place in the finals to face the mighty Phillies. The stage was set for a showdown that had everyone on the edge of their seats. In the end, though, the Phillies proved they were the team to beat, out-performing the Brewers in a thrilling final match. Congratulations to the Phillies for taking home the championship—what a well-earned victory! Looks like that two captain strategy paid off!

As we look ahead to next season, let's keep the fun going—because whether you're rolling strikes, picking up spares, or just happy to be out of the gutter (literally and metaphorically), we're all here to have a good time.

Thanks to each and every one of you for another unforgettable season. Here's to more strikes, more laughs, and maybe a few more perfect games (though, let's be honest, not all of us are quite that lucky).

See you all next year!

Your Tribal Chief,
Jeff Hartney

Rule 7: League Averages

Entry Average - The Entry Average for a bowler returning from the previous season will be their previous season's final Current Average. The Entry Average for all other bowlers will be established at the discretion of the Board prior to or during the annual membership meeting using all reasonably available information.

Vacancy Average - If, after all reasonable efforts have been made, the Secretary determines at the time of the annual membership meeting that there will be less than 30 players available for the current season, the Secretary shall determine the Vacancy Average for any vacancy in the league for the purpose of team drafting. This Vacancy Average shall be equal to the bowling average of the bottom six (6) returning bowler averages from the previous season.

If, for any reason, a bowler's position on a team becomes vacant during the season, his Vacancy Average shall be his Current Average at the time his position becomes vacant.

Current Average - Until nine (9) games have been completed, the bowler's Current Average is his Entry Average. After nine (9) games are bowled in the current season and for the rest of the season, the Secretary will compute the bowler's Current Average on a weekly basis.

Blind Average of Quitting Bowler – If an established (returning) bowler quits the league with twenty-one (21) or more games completed their blind average will be their current average. If the returning bowler has not completed twenty-one (21) games or more then the blind average will revert to their entry average.

NATIONAL BOWLING LEAGUE

Rule 12: Legal Line-up

- If only two (2) bowlers are present on one or both teams, both teams will put their line-up down in ascending average (low to high) with no exceptions. The point for an absent bowler against another absent bowler will be awarded to the absent bowler with the higher average. The point for a vacant bowler against another vacant bowler will be split.
- If three (3) or more bowlers are present on one team, absent bowlers cannot compete against each other. The Captain setting his team's lineup second (home team) must make lineup adjustments to avoid this situation. A vacant bowler may be opposite an absent bowler in a legal lineup at any time. A vacant bowler should not be opposite another vacant bowler.

Rule 14: Position Standings

- A total of twenty-five (25) points shall be awarded per match.
- Each match allows for twenty (20) individual points. One (1) point is awarded per game to each team member whose total pin-fall outscored the bowler in the same lineup position on the opposing team. One (1) point is awarded to the bowler who wins the 3-game series against the opposing bowler. Ties award a half point (0.5) per man.

Motion made by G. Hartney and 2nd by R. Seifert that the By-Laws of the league be revised as indicated above. Motion carried.

Motion to adjourn by E. Walck, 2nd by D. Giessubel, was moved at 8:42PM. Motion carried unanimously.
