INSTRUCTIONS.

An examination of the law will inform assessors and their assistants of their duties and compensation. The following explanations indicate the correct use of the blanks furnished.

Families numbered.—In the column under this heading write the figure 1 opposite the name of the head of the first family visited; the figure 2 opposite the name of the head of the next family, and so on, numbering in this column only the heads of families. By a "family," is meant a number of persons, whether one or many, living together and subsisting at a common table, or from one common supply. A widow living alone and separately providing for herself, or two hundred individuals living together and provided for by a common head, should each be numbered as one family. The resident inmates of a hotel, jail, hospital, or other similar institution, should be recorded as one family, unless there be several tenements or distinct families, in which case they should be separated.

In the next column of "names of every person," &c., insert the name of every person in each family, of every age, including the names of those temporarily absent on a journey, visit, or for the purposes of education, as well as those that were at home on the 1st day of May. The name of any member of a family who may have died, after that date, is to be entered and the person described as if living, but the name of any person born after the first day of May is to be omitted. The names are to be written beginning with the father and mother, or, if either or both be dead, begin with some other ostensible head of the family, to be followed, as far as practicable, with the name of the oldest child residing at home, then the next oldest, and so on to the youngest, then the other inmates, lodgers, and boarders, laborers, domestics, and servants.

All landlords, jailors, superintendents of poor-houses, hospitals, asylums, and other similar institutions, are to be considered as heads of their respective families, and the inmates under their care to be registered as members thereof, and the details concerning each, designated in their proper columns, so distinctly as to preclude any doubt as to who form the family proper and who the guests, prisoners, or other inmates, carefully omitting all transient persons.

Age.—In this column indicate by figures the age of each person on his last birth-day, not occurring after May 1st. Designate the age of children not yet one year old by a cypher, (0). If, in any case, the age cannot be ascertained enter a dash, (—).

Sex.—Designate each male by a capital M, each female by a capital F, in the proper column.

Color.—In case of whites, write W; for full blood negroes, B; for mulattoes, mixed with negroes, M; for full blood Indian, I; for half-breeds, mixed white and Indian, H.

Nativity.—Give here the State of the Union, or the foreign country in which each person enumerated, was born. The value of the information here sought, like all statistics, depends upon its accuracy. Use particular designations in preference to general ones. Say that a man is a native of England, Wales, or Scotland, rather than of Great Britain; of Denmark, Norway, or Sweden, rather than of Scandinavia; and of Prussia, Saxony, Baden, Austria, &c., rather than of Germany. For the names of any of the United States, the customary abbreviations may be used.

Parent Nativity.—In the two columns under this heading, give the birth place of the father and mother of each person.

Condition.—This column is to record the deaf, dumb, deaf and dumb, blind, insane and idiotic. "Deaf," "dumb," and "blind," may be written in full when required by the fact; "D. and D." may stand for "deaf and dumb;" "In." for insane, and "Id." for idiotic.

You will be expected to complete the enumeration without delay, and return the schedules to the county auditor immediately on completing them. You should report progress to him as often as once in two weeks, in order that he may know that you are not disabled for duty; and if by sickness or any accident you are likely to be seriously delayed in your work, you should at once notify the county auditor of the fact.
