

After having seen several doctors and still struggling with vertigo symptoms, it was such a relief to walk into Dr. Sanders' office and have him immediately diagnose my condition and get me on medication that immediately made a difference to my dizziness and nausea. It was great having the doctor, audiologist and therapist all in the same location and a full treatment plan established right off the bat! Now I am on the full road to recovery!

Thanks for everything!

Femi