

Muegge, Harold

Harold F. Muegge, 87, of Cass City died Saturday morning, May 27, 2000, at the Tuscola County Medical Care Facility. Harold was born in Quincy, Ill., moving to Detroit as a young boy with his parents, the late Henry and Elizabeth Muegge. He graduated from Cass Technology school in 1931. On May 30, 1940, he married Helen Marie Peebles in Detroit and moved to the Trenton area, where he worked at the Trenton Channel Power Plant of Detroit Edison Co. He served in the U.S. Army from 1943 to 1946 at a TEC 5. In his younger years, he found gardening and yard work to be a source of pleasure, for he was a man of action. In later life, he found happiness in watching and encouraging the work of others. He also was blessed in continuing to find love in his second marriage to Margie. Harold married his surviving wife, Margie (Thiel) Schwartz on Nov. 27, 1993. Along with his wife, he is survived by two children, Joyce Helen Troy of Ann Arbor and Janet Elizabeth Bryant and her husband, Michael, of Cass City; stepchildren, John Schwartz and his wife, Joyce, of Deford, Peg Schwartz of Huntsville, Alabama, Dorothy Hill and her husband, Kim, of Snover, and Edward Schwartz and his wife, Deanna, of Keysville, Virginia; three grandchildren; six step-grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Helen Marie (Peebles) in 1992; and a daughter, Joan Marie Rittig, in 1996. Memorial services will take place Friday, June 2, 2000, at Novesta Church of Christ with Chuck Emmert officiating. Harold donated his remains to Wayne State University Medical School with cremation to follow. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorials to the Tuscola County Medical Care Facility, Novesta Church of Christ or Rawson Memorial Library.
