

ALA Arizona Auxiliary – Monthly Chaplain Message September 2025

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

As we step into September, a month of transition and reflection, let us pause to honor the quiet strength that binds us together—faith, service, and community. The changing season reminds us that growth often comes through change, and with each falling leaf, we are invited to let go of what no longer serves us and embrace what lies ahead.

This month, may we carry forward the spirit of compassion that defines our auxiliary mission. Whether we are comforting a veteran, supporting a family, or simply lending a listening ear, our presence is a powerful ministry. Let us continue to be vessels of hope, kindness, and resilience.
