Town Council

Please accept this utility patent plant layout for the nonferrous metal recycling industry.

This plant layout is also an aviation facility with boiler-heated runways. It is designed to accommodate, including Airbus 380.

The total patent uses no fossil fuels, therefore no greenhouse gases, and no global warming. It is powered entirely by alternative energy sources.

The Environmental Protection Agency located in Westlake Ohio is very happy about this. Their telephone number is (440) 250-1700.

60

I have enclosed two envelopes. Each envelope contains sixty-three pages. One envelope contains line configurations without text, and the other envelope contains line configurations with text.

The published website patent only shows twelve pages of drawings. The sixty-three pages which I have enclosed are more clear.

You are welcome to have this patent. I wanted to bring forth my biggest pie, my best pie. You now have it. As far as I am concerned it is yours and you may give a head nod on this.

We can work-out any compensation for me as well as my participation with the project at a later date.

Should you want to view this patent online it is published in WIPO. WIPO is The World Intellectual Property Organization in Geneva, Switzerland.

Re: Pending Patent Number US11/390,652
International Application Number PCT/US2006/012423

Subject: Conveyance of authority and responsibility expansion patent cooperation treaty form PCT/1B/308 1/11/2007

around the original date of filing 3/28/2006 I happened to speak with someone at the U.S.PTO or U.S.PCT office, whose name I believe was Diane or Diana. During the course of our conversation was the subject of informing President George W. Bush about this patent application. It was recommended by me to Diane or Diana that the President should know about this. Also the subject matter of securing this patent in 128 member state countries, and my inquiry as to the total cost. Diane or Diana stated about 50,000.00. Shortly after our conversation a male informed me that Diane or Diana had been reassigned.
