The Sunshine Committee is needing more hearts. The list of colors is available on the website. Please get these to Pat Bradley.

Mountain Quiltfest show is right around the corner. If you are participating in the guild challenge – April Showers bring May flowers – we will be collecting those April 8, to get to Rebecca Tucker who will take them to Pigeon Forge on April 9. Don't forget to have your entry form and photo with your quilt. Info is on our website.

Some discussion was had about the 15th Anniversary Celebration coming in September. Phyliss Phifer is looking for recommendations for catering so if you have any please get info to her.

Charity quilts – We had 6 longarmers and 9 binders volunteer! Thanks ladies! There are 38 finished quilts so far! Keep them coming!

We discussed organizations for the charity quilts. Of course, there is Red Bird. Alive Hospice was discussed and Casas. Casas quilts would go to toddler to teens. Ages 5-14 and could be lap size and would stay in Rutherford County. We will be voting next meeting.

We had 2 January Potholders and 4 February potholders. Lissa won the drawing for January and Rebecca Tucker won the February drawing. Information is on the website. Let's see what you can make!

Lori Schmitz brought another door prize. It was won by Ann Marcellis. Thank you Lori for sharing!

We had a few show and tell and another great time with visiting and lunch.

Meeting was adjourned at 11:50
