The Editor's Corner...

The Indiana Conference

We are so grateful to our new member, Nick Weyer, for at least two things—he has resurrected our website at www.ncayr.org and he has volunteered to host our Fall conference this year. Thank you, Nick! We haven't been to Indiana since 2000 when President Carol Mayernick volunteered to host the first conference outside of New York State since 1978. That conference was special—that was my first NCAYR conference. And that is the year I completed my D.Min. degree and dissertation. So the group welcomed me as a presenter of my thesis—Spiritual Pathways to Treatment Outcomes: The God-Factor in Reducing Recidivism in Residential Treatment of Delinquent Adolescents. It was a great conference and we had a great turnout, especially from Indiana and Michigan and New York. We are so happy to be back in Indiana (only a 4-hour drive for me!)

The NCAYR Digest is 15 years old! Happy Birthday to you!

I think that it is time—now that we have the website working again, it is time to celebrate the 15 years of NCAYR Digest as the last year. You know how I am retired from my ministry at Holy Cross children's Services. I am no longer working with youth at risk on a daily basis and that makes it hard to keep up the editor role for the Digest. We need to get a new editor or just to close it down and focus on the www.ncayr.org website. Check out the website—Nick has developed a wonderful archive of all the issues of the Digest. Thank you, Nick. All that remains for me to do is to update the Index of topics for the 15 years—the last issue?
