

John "Jack" R. Miller

John "Jack" R. Miller, 61, of Elkton, died Saturday evening, Oct. 16, at Covenant Cooper, Saginaw following a stroke.

He was born Dec. 14, 1948 in Phillipsburg, N.J. to the late Richard and Ethel Miller. Jack was a truck driver for A-1 Truck Repair in Belvedere, N.J. for over 16 years, retiring in 1996 for health reasons.

In 2001, Jack moved to Elkton to be closer to his daughter. He was an avid NASCAR fan, collecting all sorts of memorabilia, and enjoyed spending time with his buddies at the Lunch Bucket in Elkton.

Surviving are two daughters, Laurie (Bryan) Taylor of Ruth and Amy (Todd Row) Miller of Hartford, Conn. and four grandchildren, Ashley, Karrina, Corey and Cody.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Michael Miller.

The funeral service will be conducted 8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 20, at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton.

Visitation will begin at 2 p.m. until the time of services at the funeral home.

Memorials may be directed to the family.
