

Lucinda Eichler

1904 - 1995

Lucinda Eichler, age 90 of Pigeon, passed away Wednesday, May 24 at her home.

She was born in Bay Port on July 17, 1904, the daughter of the late Joseph and Magdalena (Oesch) Roth. On December 24, 1925 she was united in marriage to Harvey W. Eichler in Berne. He preceded her in death on March 16, 1988.

Mrs. Eichler attended the Quarry School in Bay Port. She was a homemaker throughout her lifetime and was a former member of the Farm Bureau. She was a member of the Michigan Avenue Mennonite Church in Pigeon.

She is survived by her daughter, Doris Dressler, Sebewaing; a granddaughter, Sandy (John) Wolford, Milford; two grandsons, Terry (Ruth) Dressler and Duane (Carmen) Dressler, both of Sebewaing; a great-granddaughter, Nicole Dressler; and a great-grandson, Christopher Wolford. She was preceded in death by her son, Dr. Delmer H. Eichler; three sisters, Amy, Ada, and Kathryn; and three brothers, Harry, Norman, and William.

Funeral Services will be conducted at 3:30 p.m. on Friday, May 26 from the Michigan Avenue Mennonite Church. Rev. Jay Miiller, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Memorials may be made to Michigan Avenue Mennonite Church and Country Bay Village both of Pigeon.