RVT or Assistant FT

Jefferson Animal Hospital has an employment opportunity for a veterinary assistant or licensed technician. Experience is preferred but we are willing to train candidates who are self-starting, detail-oriented, have a good attitude, and are responsible. Weekend and holiday rotation required. Salary depends on experience and education. Job responsibilities include care of patients, venipuncture, taking radiographs, dental cleanings, and anesthesia monitoring. We offer competitive benefits, wages, and training. Interested in becoming part of a great team?
