These small words teach us how to read when chunks are in bold, such as would, could, should, and light, night, right, and fight!

Zack is a small boy
with brown hair
and big brown eyes.
He lives in a
small old house
with his mom and dad
by his side.

Though,
the house
does not feel old.
Zack's mom and dad
fixed the house up
with paint, wood,
and nails.

They live in a small town
and have woods in their back yard.
Zack loves to play
in his woods
thus far.
