God's Message to Our Enemies

March 1, 2018

Lord, you are faithful, no matter what the plot against us. You have the beginning and the end in Your Mighty Hand, Jesus. And we can count on You to deliver us from our enemies. May you be Glorified.

Well, my dear Heartdwellers, as the last message explained, we have been extending hospitality to a lovely woman from Korea, and that has taken quite a chunk out of our schedule.

But now that that has been resolved, I wish to share with our dear enemies the psalm the Lord gave me yesterday.

"In you, Lord, I have taken refuge; You will never allow me to be put to shame. In your righteousness, rescue me and deliver me; turn your ear to me and save me.

"You are my rock of refuge, to which I go; give the command to save me,"

Boy He sure did - He sent St. Michael

"You are my rock and fortress. Deliver me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the grasp of those who are evil and cruel. For you are my hope, Sovereign Lord, my confidence."

From my conversion, I have relied on you; you brought me forth from the womb of this dark world. I will ever praise you.

"I have become a sign to many that you are my strong refuge. My mouth is filled with your praise, declaring your splendor all day long. You have not cast me away when I am old: You have not forsaken me, though at times I feel my strength is gone.

"For my enemies speak against me; those who wait to kill me conspire together. For they say, 'God has forsaken her; pursue her and seize her, for no one will rescue her.'"

Oh, how foolish their thoughts and schemes...

"You are not far from me, my God; You stand at my right hand and always are there quickly, to help me.

"May my accusers perish in shame; may those who want to harm me, be covered with scorn and disgrace and turn from their wickedness to You the hope of Israel!"

And for the demons, may they walk the halls of Hell and declare the praises of God and the mercy of God until Hell is no more.

"As for me, I will always have hope; I will praise You more and more. My mouth will tell of your righteous deeds, of your saving acts all day long—though I know not how to relate them all, You will put the words in my mouth

"I will come and proclaim your mighty acts, Sovereign Lord; I will proclaim your righteous deeds, yours alone. Since my conversion, God, you have taught me, and to this day I declare your marvelous deeds.

"Even when I am old and gray, You have not forsaken me, till I declare your power to the next generation, your mighty acts to all who are to come. Your righteousness, God, reaches to the heavens, you who have done great things.

"Oh, Who is like you, oh Lord? Though you have made me see troubles, many and bitter, you restore my life again and again and again;"

And wow - do I learn from those troubles!

"...from the depths of the earth you have brought me up."

From the depths of self-pity, You have rescued me.

"You will increase my honor and comfort me once more. I will praise you with my golden harp for your faithfulness, my God; I will sing praise to you with the lyre, Holy One of Israel. My lips will shout for joy when I sing praise to you—I whom you have delivered. My tongue will tell of your righteous acts all day long, to those who wanted to do me harm."

I pity them, Lord, for they have been put to shame and confusion. Teach them wisdom, open your arms wide and receive them as they turn from their wickedness and recognize the liar they have given their lives to.

Restore them to purity, revive them with the honey of Your Love, infuse them with the wisdom of the ages, that they might forsake their futile ways and run to You, Oh Lord. Who will never deceive or hurt them.

And that's my version of Psalm 71.

Precious enemies, you who have planned evil to destroy what God is upholding here. Please, take these words to the night watches when no one is listening to the thoughts of your hearts.

Please consider: the one you serve has taught you lies and deceit, because that is all he knows... And please, like a little child, put 2 and 2 together: if he has taught you deceit, do you really believe he has been honest with you???

A tree is known by its fruit. His fruit is nothing but wickedness, evil, chaos. He has come to kill, steal and destroy, to tear down what is good and cause disorder. No-one can flourish in disorder - not even you. Can you really execute the dreams of your heart in chaos? Do you think you can find happiness when everywhere you turn is destruction? Are you not sawing off the limb you are sitting on?

Everything you believe about Jesus is just another big lie to keep you in bondage to this master Thief and Deceiver. There is nothing that will please him more in your regard—than to see you on your death bed and send his most gruesome demons to rip you out of your body and torture you limb from limb... only to see your flesh reappear and destroy it again and again in raging pain. And he'll laugh you to scorn! Because you believed him. You're gonna look at him and say, 'But I served you!' And he's gonna look at you and say, "Yes! You are a Dupe! You certainly did serve me. And now, I get to torture you for eternity." That's what he has in mind for you.

Everything he has told you is one big lie after another to entrap you. He is using your heart wounds, things done to you as a child and young adult, to manipulate you into serving him. You weren't able to forgive the people who hurt you, so he is using bitterness in your heart, and the unforgiveness and so many other wrong attitudes in your hearts. Attitudes you got when unjust men and women hurt you.

It's not God's fault they hurt you. It is the fault of Satan, who taught them these ways and stole from them, wounded them, and even addicted them—so they were weak and foolish and ended up wounding you. Even those in the clergy who were weak and exploited you were inspired by Satan—not Jesus.

Don't look to man. Satan is the author of evil and he planned these things against you so that someday he could get you to hand over your life to him, so you could retaliate and get retribution for all the wounds that were done to you. He deceived you into serving him. He is the author of all the bad that has happened to you.

He is NOT the brother of Jesus. He is a fallen angel. That, too, is a lie. Jesus is part of the holy Trinity: the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Satan is but an angel that was created to lead worship in Heaven. And he got ticked off because God got all the praise and worship - and HE wanted it. So, he rebelled and he took a third of the angels with him.

Understand: he is NO equal to Jesus. That's why he can't touch ANYONE that Jesus protects. He can't!

But here is the good news, if you come to the Lord for help, He will not turn you away. He will protect you. He will heal your ills and remove from you the deep pains of your heart. He will fill you with the oil of gladness, give you strength to stand and lead you into the true meaning of your life. A life fully equipped to serve. A life that you'll find rewarding and joyful.

Please take to heart my words. You are under the spell of the dark one, who will not win this battle. But he will rejoice to torture and betray you for eternity.

Listen to the testimony of John Ramirez listed under this video. He was at the top of Satan's command in America, in NYC. Satan exploited his need for a father's love by coming to him every night and instructing him. He was the one who set principalities over NYC. He had judges, politicians, doctors and the higher-ups in government in his coven. He had women, cars, money, fame, notoriety—everyone was afraid of him.

Why did he leave Satan's service? What tipped him off to what Satan was REALLY doing? What does John know about Satan that you don't know?

Ask yourself that question and listen to his testimony. If you dare... to know the real Truth.

And my Heartdwellers, please pray for these people who have sent one distraction after another, and so many other spirits of division, and sickness. Everything they can think of to try and bring Heartdwellers down. Please pray for them. The Lord has the victory over all of that, but you please pray for these captives that they be set free.

The Lord is victorious and nothing will stop His will. Our only job is to be obedient and give Him our all and He will do the rest. I'm not going anywhere until it is my time. I'm here to stay, and I thank you for your prayers. They do help immensely.

I love you all dearly, and so appreciate your prayers and support. It means a great deal to us. We've got a lot of work to do! And I thank you for being part of the Lord's heart and sharing your heart with us.

I love you all. Yes, even you, my enemies. I long to see you set free.

When It All Goes Wrong... Failed Discernment

March 3, 2018

THANK YOU, Lord Jesus, for helping us recover when we have failed in discernment and find ourselves adrift without direction. You're always there to catch us when we fall.

Dear friends, I can't think of many things that are more painful than making a big mistake in discernment. How does this happen? Well, there are many ways. But one thing is for sure—if He allows it, He is humbling us and causing us to pay much closer attention to what we get in prayer and how pure our motives and relationship really are.

For me, it is a time of being crushed into fine powder and having to completely re-think my relationship with the Lord.

I ask myself, 'Wow. Have I had a relationship with the Lord, or a familiar spirit?? How did I get so far out of line that He had to allow such a big mistake in discernment?'

Sometimes, this is His last resort to get us to go deeper, examine our hearts to see what we are missing that needs to be confessed. When we are moving along, feeling really good about ourselves and the direction we are going in, we can be so relaxed that we miss the little signals that something is not quite right here.

That's when He allows the big mistakes; He is trying to get our attention.

Just because you interpreted a Rhema a certain way does not mean God had meant it the way you interpreted it. Satan often uses this tactic to mislead you. He sees how God is speaking to us and twists it—just a bit—to fit the circumstance he is going to inject into our lives to throw us off track.

He has done this to us countless times. Just because things line up as a confirmation... does not mean they were sent as a confirmation for what WE are thinking it confirms.

Two things are possible here. Perhaps the Lord allowed us to be deceived to humble us and draw us closer to His Heart, keeping our heads down low. Or, the rhemas were confirmations for something altogether different. But in our zeal for the Lord, and our own way, we assigned them to the wrong situation.

The devils are opportunistic, looking for ways to slant things to their advantage. And if you have any attachment or desire to see things go a certain way—that can seriously infect your discernment.

They are total geniuses in reading your attachments. Believe me, they have a file and a history on you that you just can't even believe is so accurate. And they have that file, that history on you, so that they know how to manipulate you when they want to bring you down. They love to work against spiritually-minded Christians. Because we see the Lord's hand in so many things, we can easily be led astray by a few wispy confirmations that, really, are NOT from Him.

"Oh, look at that bumper sticker!! It's says 'Maryland' on it. I knew we were supposed to go there!"

lol... Don't laugh too loud—it happened to me...

"Oh, look! They called! That means that we're really supposed to be involved in their mission!"

Watch out, guys. That thing called 'self-will' is a monster! And the demons know exactly how to make that monster bring you down.

When everything is said and done, there is only ONE SURE way to discern—and that is the outcome and the fruit. The fruit doesn't lie, unless you twist it a little to make it fit your slant. But even if you do, sooner or later it's going to pop open and be revealed as something different than what you thought it was. You can't twist it in the wrong direction for too long. Truth has its own anointing and its own way of opening up something that was misunderstood.

One key component to this is stepping back and looking at the situation from a distance and measuring it against the known will of God: when dealing with people, we look for attitudes and actions. Not to judge the person, but to measure what a person says against how they behave, what they do or do not do. Pay attention. If they pay attention or drift.

When you see cracks around the edges, that indicate a lack of sincerity or application, you can begin to put together a puzzle, yet not judging the person. Observing these things carefully, without assigning motives to the soul, gives you insight into the true direction they are headed in.

In the end, when you find yourself saying, 'Something's not right here,' that is a caution from Holy Spirit.

In a recent situation, I had to pay attention to that 'something'—which the Lord also confirmed in the last message I posted. I tend to overlook things, because I don't want to assign motives. However, the Lord told me not to discount these observations, that He allowed them to reveal something.

You see, the devils will play on your sense of responsibility to influence you with false guilt to follow through on something that just doesn't set right with you.

"I ought to do that - that would be the right thing to do."

"I really should do it, but something doesn't feel right..."

That's when you need to stop and take another look—a long look.

The Enemy uses your compassion and love against you. They try to influence you with 'What will people say if I do that?' Or 'What will people say if I DON'T do that?'

They involve the opinions of men and religiosity in your thinking—whispering to one another, "Let's play the guilt card, 'What will other Christians think if you do that?' That will stop her."

I have made so many mistakes like this, that I really get firm when I realize the ‘guilt and what will people think’ cards are being played on me—because I have seen this tactic so many times before... and fallen for it, flat on my face—with very unpleasant consequences for everyone.

There are times the enemy will cause your thinking to go off track and will encourage you to do something really radical. We all can get to a point where we want something different from life and if we are ‘super spiritual’—or we THINK we're 'super spiritual'...

Wow. Now there's a set-up!

...as well as discontented with where He has placed us, (another set-up) we can get it in our heads to do something way off the track.

For instance, I have had people show up here being absolutely certain that God sent them. Yet when they finally leave, there is a huge trail of disorder behind them. Did God really send them? Or are they getting mixed messages and confusing the voice of the enemy with the voice of God?

How do you know for certain that God is sending you somewhere and it's not just the enemy playing on your frustrations with where you are at?

The demons are very talented at painting a mental picture for you that really doesn't exist. But in this picture are all the things you hoped DID exist. You see all the elements that are in your heart's desire: a community with holy fellowship, rich opportunities for corporate worship, a place to stay when you get to the other end, people to affirm and bless you and unlimited time with the person you came to see.

If the enemy paints a picture like that, before you even think one more step ahead, (such as putting your things in storage, or getting directions to the location!) before you do any of that, you need to take a reality check. Like, make a phone call. Send an e-mail. Inquire and find out if that even exists?

The two people I am thinking of did not do this. They boldly forged ahead and showed up here, only to find two people living alone in a tiny house with five cats and a dog... without a community and without lodging for visitors.

But I can say from experience, I've learned these lessons the hard way, because I have only wanted fellowship and a real spiritual community and someone to counsel me and help me find direction. So, I allowed the enemy to paint a picture that didn't exist for ME—and very rashly I followed it. Only to be bitterly disappointed, leaving bad feelings behind and a trail of disorder. A mess to clean up after I left.

How can I prevent that from happening?

For one, think of the other person; think of how showing up could possibly affect them. I have told all of you, for a long time, that we are just two people, plus a couple of staff members who come during the week. We are just two people alone: no community, no events, no happenings, no fellowship. All we do is just quietly pray every day, sharing with you the wisdom the Lord gives us. I am not some kind of guru. I am a simple woman following God... making lots of mistakes and wanting to help you avoid doing the same.

If I have the responsibility to feed thousands of people every day through the simple practice of prayer and listening to God's voice—what will happen if someone shows up here needing my time? Will I be able to take care of both the visitor and the Channel?

No. The simple answer is, 'No'.

And that's not even beginning to think about the pressure it puts on you, when someone shows up and you don't want to leave them out in the cold. You want to do the right thing. But unfortunately, in order to be able to take care of Heartdwellers, the right thing is to turn them away. I don't have time like that, to spend on people. I try to put them up for a short span of time, and take extra care in discerning what's going on. And then, when the Lord reveals it to me—I have to move on it.

And so far, it's been, "I'm sorry. You can't stay here." And that's a hard thing to do. It's very hard.

But people who are needy don't always think about what their actions will do to others. They have a rosy picture painted and don't want to know ahead of time whether this reality exists; they just want what they need.

Had either one of these two people contacted me ahead of time, I would have put an absolute stop to it. But I know how it is—because I, too, have been fool-hardy and impulsive when I wanted something. I don't want to know I can't have it; I just want what I want and am willing to deal with the consequences, if I'm wrong, when I get there.

Dear ones, in your discernment, be very, very careful. Do not allow your desires to out-weigh prudence, reason and good manners. Be willing to take another look at a direction you think you are being led in. Take another LONG look and wait on God to confirm each step. Be willing to confront the reality that no such thing, you are thinking of, exists! And humble yourself before the Lord if He begins to give you warning signs that you are moving out of His will. This is so much better than dealing with the embarrassment and pain of being turned away.

The Lord knows ahead of time the direction you should take. Be willing to be stripped of all your desires in order to be free of attachments that, in the end, would be bad for you. Do not lean on your own understanding, but give your will over to Jesus, that He may lead you in the path that will bring you the greatest fulfillment and happiness. What we think will solve all our ills is very often only another side-track away from what God really wants us to do.

But no matter what happens, dear ones. In the end, remember He loves you. He has you covered. He will bring good out of the bad situation somehow. He always turns situations to good. He has you covered. He knew from the start how this would end. And He will never forsake or abandon you.

You can count on that.

For Those Who Wander

March 4, 2018

Thank you, Lord Jesus, for rescuing us even when we find ourselves in hot water. Especially when we find ourselves in hot water! Thank you for Your patience, kindness and mercy. Please help us to know that You never leave us on our own wisdom, but will always answer us even in ways we do not expect.

Precious family, as I look back on this week, I see how very needy so many people are for good counsel. I ache for them and want to help—that's why I post these messages, so we all may better understand the Lord's ways of leading us.

Jesus began to speak to me last night after I finished the message.

He began, "Those who wander about seeking to be healed of whatever is tormenting them, will find that no matter where they go, their issues stay the very same. It is much harder for Me to work on a soul that avoids long-term, meaningful contact with others that would, in time, facilitate their healing. Deeply spiritual souls trust very few individuals, because they know the fallibility of men."

Boy, that's for sure...

"They have been rejected for their tender relationship with Me that others do not understand.

"So many mistakenly think that if they go here or there, they will find the answer. But the answer is within you, My children. The answer to all things is Me.

"No matter where you go—you will, after time, encounter the same issues you ran from where you were before. The enemy would like to keep you wandering and never maturing, because you do not form deep enough or long-lasting enough relationships to facilitate reaching into the issues that plague you and healing them.

"Do you understand, My wandering ones? When you settle in an area, I bring others into your lives who will eventually be very good for you—if you stay with them. Many come and many go, thinking that the next group of people will be the answer. It is very rare that any people are your answer, although I do at times place you in community that is compassionate and able to pray for you.

"The major responsibility for your healing comes from those times alone with Me. Those times of worship that are suddenly very meaningful and cleansing.

"The more committed you are to relationships that I have brought into your life; the more committed you are to your prayer and worship time; the more committed you are to humbling yourself before God and man—the more your chances of being healed.

"It is the wandering stars that never quite reach their potential in life—those who are deeply spiritual, but are not always willing to look at the errors in their own discernment or their thinking. They avoid those who might be of benefit to them, or avoid also the counsel that sets them at odds with what they believe—and seek those who THEY can benefit. They prefer to teach, rather than to be taught. And so, their defenses keep them from learning and they go through life making the same mistakes over and over again.

"When you find a loving group of people who care for you, you can just as easily communicate over the Internet as you can if you live nearby. As a matter of fact, the distance is good; it gives you the opportunity to think on things without highly personal dynamics coming into play. This distance cultivates a trust and depth in a relationship that you do not acquire so quickly when you are physically in the same environment.

"My children, seek Me first; seek Me last. Be confident that I have the answers you need. Use what you have been taught to get a random word from worship music, from Scripture and from rhemas. Avail yourselves of a rhema card file, build it up with many different words from Me, with quotes from messages that spoke to you. Cultivate this gift and you will have more than enough to guide you in times of dryness.

"Above all, know that I am with you and the good you do to others will always come back to you. It is a rare grace to be in touch with like-minded souls who will give you honest feedback. Once found, it should be cultivated and deepened. In this way, you will grow secure in the love you feel from that individual and be more willing to lay aside your defenses to receive what I might impart to them on your behalf.

"Test the spirits always; be sure that they are of Me. And once this is discerned, allow that relationship to grow and you will have an advocate and friend that I can point out errors in your thinking, that otherwise you would reject. When you know you are loved and wisdom comes forth from that vessel, lay aside defenses and ponder what they observe in you. Come to Me for a confirmation. And if I do confirm it, humble yourself before them and receive it as a medicine carefully crafted to bring relief to your aching heart.

“By doing this, you are not seeking wisdom from man; you are sharing life with a like-minded soul who also hears from Me. And in the course of your friendship, I will minister to you through them and to them through you.

“But remember: all wisdom and healing originate with Me, and in prayer and worship I will speak to you and heal you.”

How Thankful I Am to You, My Obedient Ones

March 7, 2018

Thank you, Lord, for this beautiful word of encouragement. How blessed we are to have blessed You.

Well, my dear Family, the Lord wanted to encourage us that these past few weeks and months of exceptional setbacks and suffering have not been in vain; it truly blessed my heart to hear His joy over us.

He began, “My precious, precious Children, I would not have you fall into despair when events become difficult for you. I would not have you believe that I am angry with you and punishing you; this is far from the truth. You have been standing between the wrath of My Father for the sins of this nation and the world. Even as it is written, ‘Who shall I send?’ You have stood up and said, ‘Send me’.

“And I looked for one to stand in the gap and found none.”

“Now I can truly say I have found you and you have been faithful against the wrath of the devil to persevere and carry a cross for the world in the midst of many torments.

“How thankful I am to you. I will never be able to express to you the magnificent affect you have had upon the world by your simple obedience. Truly, I have hidden from you, all the good you have done, lest you become prideful. But the day is soon coming, My Bride, when you will behold the fruits of your sufferings and prayers.

“How proud I am of you all for standing your ground. My heart cannot express the joy I feel for your faithfulness. It is impossible to say, ‘Thank you,’ and let it go at that.

“The world is becoming a different place because of you. There are children being released and rescued from torments, because of what you faithfully bore in adversity. There are governments turning over a new leaf and purging corruption—because of your prayers.

“How many and how varied you are across the face of the globe, and when the tally is made, how amazing are the results from this little group of Heartdwellers. Suffice it to say, you have not labored in vain. Rather, you have brought forth fruit lasting unto the ages of ages that will continue to expand and bring forth more fruit.

“How frustrated the enemy is with you for your simple obedience! At times, it has driven him to despair, because such well-laid plans have crumbled to dust. Yes, this is a good thing, a very good thing; a miracle wrought at the hands of My littlest faithful ones around the globe.

“As things continue to change, there is much rejoicing in Heaven. And as goodness is felt around the world, as evil is purged from governments, as Light is brought forth to more nations, as the Muslim people find their salvation in Me alone—Heaven rejoices and looks down upon you with wonder that you have chosen to sacrifice for those you do not even know.

“Oh yes, the Great Cloud of Witnesses rejoices over those who have taken up their cross and followed Me. And they see what you cannot see. They see the great numbers being added to the Kingdom daily. They see hearts that were hard and evil being turned to good and coming alive again with hope. And their joy in your prayers and sacrifices knows no bounds.

“I wanted to tell you this, because many of you have really taken a beating, and you cannot see the fruit of your labors. But I see it all. Heaven sees it and My Father rejoices over you, each and everyone, who has done their part to bring this about.

“Now, I want you to understand that the enemy in this hour has taken a great beating. Many of his plans have been ground into dust and scattered in the wind. Many he thought he held captive, bound for Hell, have been released and gloriously taken to Heaven. And more is coming. More and more these conversions spread a holy fire through the nations, drawing more and more souls into the Kingdom. New ministries are being born and taking the initiative to set the captives free.

“You do not see from your viewpoint, but many of these have been spurred on by your hidden prayers—so that you not only bring forth fruit in your lifetime, but those you beget are bringing forth more and more fruit. And their next generation shall bring forth more and more fruit—until the rivers are overflowing with souls that have given their lives to Me.

“So, I say to you today, rejoice! For great is your reward in Heaven; greatly have you impacted the world. Do not despair at your losses, you will never out-give Me.

“If you have yet to experience the sweetness of the garden with Me, ask and expect Me to answer your prayer. But either way, I have many consolations in store for you and nothing. NOTHING you have sacrificed for Me has gone unnoticed.

“Eye truly has not seen, ear truly has not heard, what I have prepared for those who love Me. And you, amongst many, are those who truly have loved Me and responded to My call to prayer and sacrifice.”

Well, my dear Heartdwellers, I just want to add that your prayers are powerful. And I've experienced them first hand. We've had some major turn-arounds and corners turned with Ezekiel's health. He's had two major healing now. And the devil has been put to flight in the most embarrassing way. It's really quite amazing what the Lord has done.

He's stretched our faith—that's for sure! And the battle does continue. But there has been a major victory over the enemy. And major loss for him. And we thank the Lord for this beautiful victory and stand in His promises to us.

And we know... Even these sufferings. They come and they go. And the strangest circumstances, the strangest things will happen. They'll come and they'll go. And there's no explanation for it. None at all. Except that in that moment, in that hour, THAT sacrifice was necessary for the Lord's work.

So, it really is quite amazing to behold. We're no longer concerned about this disease or that disease—because we realize the Lord puts burdens on us that don't really have anything to do, even to do with our bodies at times. And feel pains, sufferings in various places—that He turns around and lifts quickly thereafter. With no trace of anything left. So, it's really quite amazing how He's using these different burdens.

I wanted to encourage you. Whatever you've lost, believe me, He will make it up to you. He's an amazing God and He loves us so tenderly. I can't wait to see the day that He rejoices over us all!

Well, God bless you, dear ones. And thank you for your continued support of our mission. In this last week, we received a large donation, and the donor asked that we bless ministries with it. We sent all of it out, except a very small amount to use for domestic issues—people who need firewood and food and that kind of thing.

But we certainly appreciate your donations to the mission itself, because we do have a staff to take care of. And everything that is left over from that goes out to the four corners of the world—especially in the places where there's the most sorrow, and the most suffering.

So, the Lord bless you, dear Heartdwellers. And thank you again for your prayers. We are WINNING this war! Amen.

Plague to be Unleashed in America! Call to Prayer

March 8, 2018

My dear Heartdwellers, this is a Call to Prayer. An urgent call to prayer for a plague that is to be unleashed in America.

I had a dream two nights ago, and was waiting for the Lord to confirm that it was to be shared.

The weather was mild and we seemed to be in a recreational forest area with lakes, perhaps in the south.

Like Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas, but that's my guess, I'm really not sure. There were mountains in the area and a lot of expansion going on, resort condominiums on various lakes, with very high hills or mountains 'round about.

I was with two men dressed in suits, obviously some kind of professional government, like FBI or CIA, CDC. They were driving a mid-range vehicle, clean like a rental or a fleet vehicle. They came to this area where there was a lakefront convenience store, a beach—a sandy beach—and a lake, in a recreational forest area. It seemed to be summertime or almost summer. People weren't swimming yet, but they were fishing and wearing lightweight clothing.

The men were there to monitor an outbreak of a virulent, deadly and contagious disease. I perceived that they had released the disease into the lakes in the area, or perhaps released flies and mosquitoes infected with a plague. They had just arrived and it seemed the plague was about to begin. I had a vision of the aftermath of this plague, with bodies lying on the ground, decaying from the disease.

I was leading a small group of people and we had some patriots and former special forces people with us who were very aware of what was about to happen. We were seeking to move into a wilderness area where we would be hidden from them, and distanced from the area where the plague was to take place.

As we explored the terrain, on the back side of the mountain from this particular lake, there was another rather long but smaller lake, nestled between the mountains. It should have been remote, but it had been bulldozed with roads put in and stakes where property lines were. It reminded me somewhat of the Ozarks. These were to be, eventually, Deep State condominiums. Perhaps the people that were moving into the area had vaccines to protect them.

In any case, it was apparent we would have to go to a much more remote area to be safe from what was going on. It seemed that area would be mountainous and remote.

Heartdwellers, these people who have been grooming our government for destruction have no qualms about eradicating innocent people in pursuit of their nefarious goals. Please pray for them and that this plague will not happen or will be lessened.

Ezekiel, who is doing very well, by the way, and has had a definite healing and turned a corner and is recovering. Still, the Lord comes to him with a burden, and it involves suffering pain. And he's been in pain all day today. It's very unusual. And he's been praying especially hard against this plague. That seems to be the thing that is at the top of the Lord's intercession list right now. And that was my confirmation to release it to you.

I have MANY dreams about the New World Order, but I don't put them up, because I don't see that they're really necessary. They're just extremely dreary and harsh, and government controlled and regulated, and trapped and... It's just, they're nasty, nasty dreams.

But this particular dream has haunted him all day, while his pain shot up to a 7 during intercession. So, please, please pray this will be stopped.

And as I mentioned about Ezekiel. Yes, he has had two healings, actually. And amazing things are happening with his body as he is recovering. But during this recovery process, there are times when he gets a setback. And we feel that it is quite deliberately a suffering of intercession. And then, all the symptoms disappear and everything will be normal. This is something I'm going to have to write about in the near future, because it's definitely something the Lord does allow.

So, at this point I asked the Lord if He had anything to say.

Jesus began, "I have indeed given you this dream to circulate and pray against events such as these. Those who hate your country will stop at nothing to wreak havoc and try to unseat your government. But as I have told you before, I am praying with you, My Praying Army. And your prayers have so far stopped every foul event planned by those who have no regard for human life and recklessly use it to promote their agendas.

"There are still many in your country who are ignorant of what is being done to them and what has been planned against them. And now that it is being exposed, they are desperate to destroy your president and his administration, to restore the destabilization process of your government and industry in America.

"I will not allow this to happen if you pray.

"You are not the only one, Clare, to be warned of this event. There are others. And I wish for you to come forth and share what I have entrusted to you. Your warnings will raise the alarm and cry for the army of My Prayer Warriors to pray against this plague.

"I need your prayers. Without them, this plague will happen. It is up to you, My people, to stop this with prayer.

"Already many of My shut-ins and intercessors are praying against something very dark and bad, without understanding exactly what it is. I am sending out the Call to Arms. Arm yourselves with prayer and fasting as you can and pray this will be stopped.

"If not, there will be tragic loss of innocent lives.

"I am counting on you, My People."

Come, Enjoy the Lilies

March 11, 2018

Sweet Jesus, how can I ever thank you for Your Kindness and Mercy? Thank you, Lord.

Well, sweet Heartdwellers, when I came into prayer, I saw the Lord holding a scroll in His left hand and a match in His right. And He was lighting it on fire and burning it.

I thought, 'Uh, oh...'

But He gave me to understand that it had to do with flowers. You see, every year I get this temptation in the springtime—and tonight I gave in. So, I came very guilty coming before the altar. Wanting to pray, but knowing I had really blown it and secretly hoping He will make an exception and let me keep them.

You see, I ordered a few seeds and a couple of very tiny plants on Amazon—and knew that if He didn't give me mercy, I would cancel the order this very night.

Funny though, I really didn't expect His response.

So, I asked, "What is it you are burning, Lord?" (Knowing full well I had been foolish...)

Jesus answered me, "Your list of things you feel guilty about. I am so tired of your guilt, Clare.

"There is My permissible will and My perfect will. May I say, you are sometimes much too weak to live in My perfect will? And this night I have given you My Mercy. For you have served Me faithfully and through many trials—and these flowers are My gift to you. That is why I told you to go back and get the lilies; I knew you gave them up for Me, but now I am giving them to you as a gift."

And He's talking about the seeds for Rain Lilies. They're really pretty, pink lilies.

He continued, "There are times in the life of a soul where a mercy cries out... As the saying goes, 'you can bend a bow until you break it.'"

That's a monastic saying.

"Many of My saints had gardens they tended; many also had dungeons, where their only consolation was My presence. For each, I designate what is right for them in their particular season of life. Some row the boat; others sit beside them and eat honey cakes, enjoying the ride. Each has a time and a purpose."

"The flowers are My gift to you, Beloved; the parchment was what you felt guilt over."

"Now I ask you to tuck back into your very simple life of prayer and worship and feeding My sheep, knowing that I love you dearly, Clare. Though you have denied yourself, year after year after year, these very simple pleasures—THIS year I want you to have them and enjoy them with Me. With no guilt hanging over your head."

I don't know what to say, Lord! Other than to cry little tears of thanksgiving for Your precious Mercy.

"I want you to plant them knowing this is a springtime of your life. This is the time to step into your longings to please Me, for I am with you and no one will stop Me from granting you these blessings. No one will block them. And no one will steal them from you."

"But do pray for your enemies; they have done nothing but curse you and all you stand for. Yet I am about to disarm them—and how pitiful they will be, pitiful enough to need your prayers. So, I enjoin you to petition My Father for their salvation. How I long to show them mercy!"

You know, guys? He's been talking to us A LOT about prayer for our enemies. And even the people who've been tormenting little children and trafficking them. The Lord wants to save their souls. The children that they are trafficking are getting saved, but there's no hope for them without our prayers. I'll go into that more on another message.

I answered Jesus, "Yes, Lord. I will pray. I count on you to remind me though, please?"

"This I will do."

"You have fought long and hard. Not that the future is easy, but let's just say there will not be the same impediments you have encountered in the past two years."

"And all of you, My faithful Heartdwellers and intercessors. The battles on this Earth are long and hard. There are times I wish to set you aside for recovery, and being able to move forward without having to fatigue yourself in battles all day long."

Wow! That's a good description of the way my life has been going for this last year. Battles all the day long.

Jesus continued, "I also want you to understand that there are times set apart when what was not allowed before is permitted for a season. I am hardening you all off to your own wills, and as you learn to discipline yourselves and focus more on My heart and My business, I can trust you with a few things that would ordinarily lead you in the wrong direction.

"But there is always caution to be had here, because self-indulgence encourages more self-indulgence. For instance, you know 'the eye is never satisfied for looking, nor is the ear satisfied with hearing.'"

And that reminded me of a quote—not only from Ecclesiastes but from The Imitation of Christ. Which says, "Be oft-times mindful of the saying, 'The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear with hearing.' Strive, therefore, to turn away thy heart from the love of the things that are seen, and to set it upon the things that are not seen. For they who follow after their own fleshly lusts, defile their conscience, (boy, I can relate to that one...) and destroy the grace of God.

"All things are wearisome; Man is not able to tell it. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, Nor is the ear filled with hearing." Ecclesiastes 1:8

Jesus continued, "And this is how Laodicea, the prosperous town, fell into apostasy and lukewarmness. This is why I have told you the greatest challenges will come with prosperity, because man tends to be enamored of all that is transitory, a chasing after the wind. He is well-armed at war; but the real danger comes in peace.

"My dear ones, it is not My heart to deprive you. You are in a war for your souls and the souls of your children. And for this reason, you must build with one hand and hold the sword with the other. You must be vigilant, because your enemy is forever trying to slowly, imperceptibly guide your affections towards the things that will weaken your ability to live an upright life.

"When the war is over and you are with Me in Heaven, you will see just how much I love you, just how much I longed to give you the choicest gifts on Earth—but did not, because I knew they would cause you to wander off and let your guard down, while the enemy stealthily sought to bring you to ruin. He works in little increments, things that you don't notice. One day you need this, another day you need that, the next day you need more and more and more... until your life is entirely taken up in vanities and you are not any longer serving Me Nor are you keen on serving Me. Rather, you want to enjoy your toys.

"No soldier gets involved in civilian affairs. If he does, he can no longer protect his charge. And it is quite the same with you. The more deeply entrenched in civilian affairs you become, the less you are able to be alert and on guard. And the more likely you are to fall away, indulging yourself in the vanities of the world—while the enemy is busy ensnaring your family and those you love, as well as abandoning the poor of this Earth I have created to elicit love and charity from your hearts. The poor are truly My gift to you, that you can become more like My Father in Heaven.

“Ah yes! When you come to Heaven and see the place I have prepared for you, it will be beyond your wildest dreams—suited you in ways that you never dreamt possible. This is because you are safe from the enemy. You are protected. And those beautiful things of creation I truly made for your enjoyment will surround you in ways you never thought possible.

“Yes, I repeat Myself. I say it again and again and again: Eye has not seen, ear has not heard and neither has it entered into the heart of man what I have prepared for you who love Me.

“So, you see? I am not the cruel taskmaster Satan would like to make Me out to be. No, I am the vigilant Father, knowing the dangers that lie behind each thing you are drawn to. And as a good Father, I train you to keep you away from these dangers.

“So, My Love—to bring it back home to you and your love affair with flowers. Flowers I have created to bring you joy. Understand it is for your health that I hold you back from these things.

“And yet, there is a season to enjoy them. Just remember to be on guard, lest the enemy draw you away with even more beauty.

“For you know well, Clare, all the beauty your heart shall ever desire is in My arms, looking into My eyes and hearing the words that ‘I am pleased with you’. These are the things the enemy cannot take from you, My Love. This relationship stands forever, blooms forever, gives off fragrance forever. And fruit, forever.

“So, come tenderly into My arms, Clare, and enjoy the lilies.”

“I Draw Best with Broken Pencils”

March 14, 2018

Thank You, precious Lord, for encouraging me and revealing to the Channel who I truly am before You.

Well, my dear ones, I don't mind sharing with you that I've had a LOT of glimpses into my insufficiency lately—into my weakness. And the Lord has come to encourage me tonight, which I deeply, deeply appreciate.

As you know, Ezekiel has been having all kinds of intercessory episodes—actually, it's a group of four of us that are working together. And we've been seeing some tremendous things being done in the spirit. And it's really quite beautiful to behold.

But I feel even littler and smaller and less significant in the midst of this, because I can see God's hand working. And the other thing is that, with all of the stress, I've had a very difficult time focusing. And I didn't expect this message tonight at all. I thought He was going to give a message on intercession.

But I've kind of been beating myself for not being able to focus lately. So, I was really kind of in a 'down' place when I came to do this message, and I just didn't realize what He was going to say. And I am SO grateful, and so encouraged.

After communion, I saw Him with a strip of paper again—lighting a match to it. And again, it was all the things I felt Guilt about. And you know, our enemy is constantly trying to cause Guilt. False Guilt and Condemnation. Because he knows that if we feel guilty and like we don't measure up, that that will cause us to withdraw from the Lord. And to feel distant from Him.

So, the enemy is continually putting false accusations in our head. We need to recognize them and bat them out again! I have to confess to you - I am NOT good at that! But He's teaching me and I'm learning.

So, that's the reason for this message tonight. And I hope it gives you a real glimpse into His heart, 'cause it was so sweet of Him to clarify many things tonight about what He's doing with this Channel, and what He is doing for us. Or for me. He can do through anyone who is willing. That's the beautiful part of this message.

Jesus began, "I do so believe in you, Clare. Though you put yourself down, I raise you up. I tell you this, because I want you to have great confidence in what you are doing for Me. Because truly, My Spirit is alive and well in you.

"You just don't see it or understand it. Yet it is visible to the simple and child-like and our episodes nourish them like milk and honey.

"And this is what it is all about. One must go way below the surface to see and feel the connection. How sad it is that you are set aside by the Christian community and falsely accused of all kinds of calumny. This is tragic to Me, because so much goodness is flowing from Me through you and yet they will not drink.

"My Heartdwellers, it is essential for you all to recognize that this dialogue between Clare and it is a gift to YOU, more than anything else. It is not her gift. It is My gift, to be shared with you so that you can pursue Me and be brought into the same very deep and tender relationship. She is merely a vessel, a very broken vessel at that, and each one of her scars is an opportunity for you to experience My Mercy in your own lives.

"I have chosen her, because she is weak in so many different ways, that it covers just about everything you all struggle with. She is less bright than you are, she is more compulsive than most of you, she is impatient and flighty, easily distracted, not capable of great fasting or self-denial, drifts in and out of her love affair with the world (flowers, etc.). But she offers Me the very perfect opportunity to speak to you about your faults, and for you to understand that I am for you with all of My Heart.

“Many of you are far more intelligent, self-controlled, dedicated, focused, reliable.... Oh, I could go on and on and on. But I have chosen the foolish ones of this world over those who are considered so very wise and capable. Yes, even as it is written, ‘The foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.’”

Brothers and sisters, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were noble of birth. But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. God chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are, so that no one may boast before him. It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God—that is, our righteousness, holiness and redemption.” I Corinthians 1:26-30

“What I am wanting to get across to all of you is that you have nothing to be jealous of in this handmaiden. She has more faults than all of you put together, and I am saying this as the Lord of all flesh and Author of life. I promise you, this is no exaggeration.

“So, what is so different about Clare? Nothing, really. She is very common, and that’s what makes her the perfect example for all of you of what is possible with Me. Give Me your life and I will do wonderful things with you. Give Me your life and I will live through you. Give Me your failures and faults and I will work through them to make My Glory shine.

“Each one of you have more potential than she has; that is another reason I chose her. When she was studying the New Age, the devils passed over her, because they wanted someone more gifted; she didn’t qualify or measure up in more ways than I can tell you.

“But she qualified in My eyes. Because she was seeking the truth above all other things, and was willing to come to terms with her lack-luster qualifications. She knew that My Love was all that mattered to her and the rest was irrelevant.

“To this day, her struggles still cause her to stumble—but I lift her up, because she doesn’t count on herself. She counts on Me to do it. Yes, she puts forth effort, but I must meet her with the other 90% or nothing gets accomplished.

“I’m waiting for the rest of you, dear ones. When will you stop trying to be someone and turn over your nothingness to Me, so I can do with you what I like? I love broken pencils. A great artist can do amazing things with one little pencil, and that is how I see so many of you—broken pencils, erasers worn down, very short and difficult to grasp and draw with. But I will amaze you with what I can do, once you are totally yielded to Me.

“So, please. Don’t put this woman on a pedestal. Rather, see her as a very common soul who frequently falls into a pit and must be extricated with My Love. She has nothing to offer you but her faults and failures and a glimpse into My mercy and what it can accomplish with the lowliest of vessels.

“I promise you, I have not exaggerated about Clare’s weaknesses. I have been bluntly honest. And she knows it.

“And I am telling it like it is, because this Channel is not about the hailing of some great prophetess. This Channel is about the power of My grace and love in the life of a very little soul I have chosen to use to reveal My Mercy, in working with all of your failures and short-comings. I could not have used her for this mission if she were anything more than nothing.

“What can I do with you who are willing to be broken and reformed into what I created you to be? It is beyond your comprehension to know this, Beloved ones. Suffice it to say, I have very wonderful things in store for everyone of you. Your eyes have not seen, nor has it even entered into your dreams, what I can do with those who love Me and will submit to My breaking and training. But I do promise you one thing: you will be amazed when I am done with you. And you will be contrite and humbled beyond words.

“And you will resemble Me.

“Come! Come into My arms and let Me make of you a vessel unto honor. My heart longs for you! Come and fulfill the destiny I have reserved for only you. Come! Trust that nothing in this world can stop Me from accomplishing My ends in your life.

“Do you want to be a saint? Come. I can do that with you, as well.

“But the greatest of all is not what you will become, but who you are to Me and how much I will drench you in My love and gratitude because you gave yourself to Me.

“Come!”

Elections are Coming. Be Responsible, My People

March 18,2018

Thank you, Lord Jesus, that You are constantly guiding us in the things that are most on Your heart, the most important to You.

Well, tonight after prayer, I wanted to give the Lord an opportunity to speak, even though He hadn't said anything to me after my communion service.

So, I asked Him, "Lord, what would you like to say? Because I know you want to say something to us...". He always does.

"You are right Beloved." He began. "I do. It's terribly important to Me that I am in communication with My flock. So many in this moment are swayed by the events of the world as it is presented to them in main stream media—which is crooked and perverted beyond remedy. 'My people perish for lack of knowledge' because they are too lazy to search until they uncover the truth.

"You were this way, Clare, but the time had not yet come for your understanding to increase. However, you understood from afar the true nature of things."

Yeah - I just couldn't bring myself to vote for anybody, because I felt they were ALL corrupt and liars.

Jesus continued, "But now I am calling My people to awareness, action and accountability. As you discover the truth, you do have an obligation to support it and vote.

"I know that no man is perfect. I know there is underhandedness and corruption everywhere you turn. But without supporting the best, though they be imperfect, you become the victims of the worst.

"Some of you are called to social action and will find yourselves in positions of responsibility. You will then understand more fully the high winds the lofty must navigate and survive in the political realms. Everyone can sit in their armchairs and find fault. But let them get into a position with pressure on all sides and see if they can survive while doing the right thing.

"That is one reason I abhor criticism and back-biting. Those who make their tongues a sword, for cutting others down, are not part of the solution. Those who want to make this world a more moral place will roll up their sleeves and get to work.

"And so, I counsel you, My people: take responsibility for your government, whether in prayer, supporting candidates, or educating the public. Do not allow things to just flow right by you without taking a moral stance. And remember that no one is perfect, but seek to support the ones who uphold what is important to Me. This may be in a greater or lesser degree, depending on your choices, but do what is right according to Scripture.

“The mess your nation is in now is the result of decades of shallow thinking; sinfully busy lifestyles that don’t have time for Me or for their nation. This is what Satan depends on—a lukewarm middle-class that is overwhelmed by endless worldly preoccupations.

“It isn’t easy to see how vital your government is... until you become the victim of corruption and it’s too late to do anything about it.

“This is what happens to nations that are not proactive in supporting what is right, from the ground up. This is how dictators take over peoples, oppress and murder them. There is a tremendous cost to freedom. And if your heart stirs when you consider your nation, you are hearing from Me a calling to do something. Get active and start somewhere. It doesn’t matter where you begin. I will move you from position to position as you grow.

“I am putting this call out to you right now, because some of you are facing elections that will deeply affect how President Trump is able to make the moral changes necessary to stop the slaughter of the innocents and other disgracefully immoral laws.”

Lord, you are so full of surprises! I never expected this message.

“Well, I am grateful to you, Clare, for taking these last moments of your day to see to it this message gets out. It is short, but very important.

“And we are making progress with the things that are on My Heart. So, please do not get under condemnation for pulling things together. All that you have been doing has been in My will for you.”

Thank you, Lord.

“Don’t you feel the peace?”

I do. It's very sweet.

“That is a sure indication that what you are doing with your day is very pleasing to Me. I want you to walk in freedom from guilt. The enemy will twist whatever he can to cause you to feel guilty. And it's debilitating to you. So, I am taking this opportunity to tell you, ‘Enjoy the peace; you are operating in My will.’”

You are so kind to me, Jesus.

“I want to reward your faithfulness and put your heart at peace.”

And I just want to mention here, that one of the ways the enemy confounds us, and gets us confused is by saying, "You shouldn't be doing that now. You should be doing this." And of course, if you're doing that, he'll say, "You shouldn't be doing this— you should be doing THAT!"

He'll put you on the run from one thing to the next. All the time, feeling guilty, like you're not doing what the Lord wanted you to do.

He has told me that He's going to remove some of the opposition that I've been coming up against. And He's doing it! It's beautiful!

That's one of the reasons I have so much peace.

And I am praying for my enemies—that's a very, very important component in the state of peacefulness in our hearts. Is to pray for our enemies. Pray good for them and pray that they would be converted. That they'll see the error of their ways.

And as you do that, I believe the angels step up to protect you even more. Because you are doing what is REALLY difficult. You're forgiving those who're hurting you. You're forgiving and praying for them. And this is God's will for us.

God bless you, Family. Let's get out there and vote and do whatever we have to do in these coming elections.

Intense Intercession Against Abortion

March 20, 2018

Thank you, Lord, for delivering us from our enemies. You are Mighty and Faithful. Please be merciful and give us more grace to carry these crosses—especially courage. Amen.

Well, my precious friends and Heartdwellers. And enemies... It is so painful for me to share this with you... But some of you may come to this point so I will anyway—even if the tears hinder me.

I must tell you that Ezekiel was in a battle today that was beyond anything we have so far have encountered.

As the group of us were praying, he was being choked for 2 hours by a heavy coil of rope wrapped around his neck, that two of us saw in the spirit, and attached to a group of men in the Supreme Court, pending a landmark decision about abortion. These men were also tied up in coils of rope and nooses. They were bound by the lies of demons and the fear that their wrong-doings would be exposed if they didn't vote the way the Deep State wanted them to.

As Ezekiel was choking, the nooses began to loosen and fall to the ground and the men made right decisions. Yet it was not made clear to us whether they would get back into that noose or stand for what was right.

One man was sitting on the fence and the angels were protecting him from the influence of the demons, so he could reason it out for himself. The angels were fighting off lying demons and flashing pictures before the eyes of many of the men, pictures of their babies, their children when they were born. And then an image of an aborted baby. Then their children, and then more aborted babies, cut-up into pieces.

Oh, this was SO difficult!

The three of us were praying together, and I was trying to pray, but felt like a paralyzed rabbit in the middle of the road with the headlights of a speeding car mesmerizing me 'till I couldn't move. I felt so insufficient and helpless...

My prayers had felt like they bounced off the walls, and I couldn't cope with everything that was going on. So, I began a Divine Mercy Chaplet, in between trying to help Ezekiel. Which was totally futile, because he was struggling and flailing around to breathe and couldn't receive anything. Not even a little medicine.

It was terrible.

The Lord allowed this suffering for a work He needed done, and though witches were behind this attack, we prayed for their conversion and for them to be blessed by the Lord with a complete change of heart and repentance. Truly, the Lord loves them and His heart is for us to love and pray for them.

But it wasn't easy.

In any case, I got a real dose of my helplessness today and it brings me to tears to even think about it. So, I came to the Lord in my nakedness and confusion.

"Lord, here I am. Devastated by my weakness and impotence, taking full responsibility for it."

Jesus began, "How can I use you, Clare, unless you are utterly familiar with your weaknesses? Do you think I take pleasure in seeing you suffer this way? I do not. Yet it is necessary to bring you to the point where you truly know, beyond a shadow of a doubt, that you are the least in My house. Moses was a man like that. This is why you have been attracted to him in the past, and there are even more reasons.

"Do you think I will allow you to perish in the battle? Have I not made promises to you both? Yet you allow yourself to court fear—perhaps thinking I will abandon you? No such thing will ever happen. I am yours forever and you are Mine forever—and not for a moment will I desert you.

"Yet I have told you that in this world you will have trouble... But keep your chin up—I have overcome the world and I live in you.

"You are an overcomer. Look at the battles of the past. When did I desert you?"

Lord, You have never deserted me—and there have been some doozy battles.

"Yes, and I have told you that there will be more and they must be harder than the ones preceding them if you are to grow."

Lord, I came to the "end of my end" today. Totally broken inside over his suffering and I really wanted to withdraw from the intense battle—coward that I am. I really didn't think I could handle any more.

Jesus answered, "But you did get through it.

"What is your decision now, Clare? You know that I have told you that if you chose to not keep climbing and suffering, that you would lose nothing I have promised you. And I would still be just as deeply in love and here for you as I am now. It is your choice, after all.

"Yet Ezekiel, too, has a part to play in this—after all he is the presiding victim soul. Yet it does roll over onto you, as well. There is much suffering in seeing a loved one suffering that way."

Lord, if I keep my eyes on You, I can never, ever turn You down. However, when I look at what he is going through I want to say "No more. Please, no more!" At least not like that. How can I answer You now? I am truly road kill.

"I know, My Love, and you have the night and tomorrow to think on these things. But let Me tell you, Clare, I am eternally grateful for the sacrifice you made today; for your admission of helplessness and honesty about confusion and weakness. I see your desire to learn more, and I will honor that. But more than anything, I treasure your abandonment to My will and confidence in Me.

"There is no sin in confessing that you have come to the end of your ability to endure, and that you don't want to suffer that way anymore. There is no sin in that. It would be regrettable, because of all the fruit being born through your patient endurance. But I can always find someone so in love with Me, that they are willing to lose all that is dear to them. You have been this way, and yet we are going deeper and getting to the very quick of your soul here."

I can't fathom saying "no" to You, Jesus. But I can't fathom having to see him suffer like that, either. And I am too tired to make that decision.

"Rest on it, dear Clare. Rest and your heart will advise you. We will talk more of this tomorrow."

Pray for me, guys. I don't want to let the Lord down.

Some of you may not understand this whole concept. And... I've talked about it over and over again. Simon's Cross. And all I can tell you is that it's proved to be true. And for the 25 years we've been in ministry, we've seen it again and again and again. And it's the Real Deal.

And I know it bears fruit. And I'm not interested in getting any reward for any of this. Certainly, if the Lord withdrew His grace for one instant, I'd be running back in to the world as fast as my feet could carry me. But He hasn't. He continues to hold me up, and He continues to give me the love necessary to pray for my enemies. And I feel badly for them. Because they are exerting themselves so much - and they're going to lose. They always lose. And God always wins! And the weaker the vessel, the greater the victory for God. Amen to that!

God bless you, Heartdwellers. Thank you for praying for me and sticking with us, praying for Ezekiel.

Assassination Attempt on President Trump

March 21, 2018

Lord, you have given us Your Word that "You deliver us from our enemies; Surely You will lift me above those who rise up against me; You rescue me from the violent man." Psalm 18:48

We stand on this for ourselves, our families, Heartdwellers and our President Donald Trump. Amen.

As I was going through the comments tonight, there was one that really stood out. And I felt it was worthy of mention.

One of our subscribers had a dream. And she said, "I had a dream the other night that President Trump was in an aircraft that exploded in the air as it was flying. It was terrible and I had the worst feeling of dread over it. I asked the Lord if the dream was from Him and I got a confirmation that it was. The deep state is desperate to stop president Trump from indicting them for their crimes so we need to keep praying for him."

So, I went to the Lord about it, and I said, "Lord, IS THIS TRUE??"

And He began, "Have you not borne witness to it, Clare? Have I not quickened your spirit that his trip to N. Korea is fraught with dangerous opportunities to put an end to him?"

"Indeed, I have warned you and ALL HEARTDWELLERS: BE ON ALERT. Pray against this and I will foil this attempt on his life and his loved ones. But you MUST seriously pray and keep this in the forefront of your minds, ready to drop to your knees in the moment of decision.

"Let him respond to NO MAN'S pressure to get on any plane. May he stand against every attempt to be lured into a trap. May those around him be forewarned with foreboding for him NOT to pursue a plan, but find an alternative or cancel altogether.

"This is a very dangerous time."

And here I just want to mention, as an alternative, it's not unusual for the enemies to attempt something 'out of season'. In other words, it might be obvious that that would be the time to kill him—but they may attempt it before May. And that's something we definitely need to be alert to, as the Lord calls us into prayer. That, yes—it could be the trip that he's planning in May, to Korea. Or it could be another time before then. So, let's keep our hearts and minds agile and responsive to Holy Spirit, so that we can be there for our president when the time is necessary.

The Lord continued, "I am with him and your prayers will indeed save his life and I shall be glorified, again and again and again.

"Who are these vain and blind opponents who believe I do not see nor will I stand against their plans??? Who am I in their eyes, but a mist and figment of the imaginations of ignorant people?"

"Who is it that says:"

His god does not see, his god does not hear, nor will his 'god' save him. Who is it who slays the widow and the stranger, And murders the orphans. They have said, "The LORD does not see, Nor does the God of Jacob pay heed." Pay heed, you senseless among the people; And when will you understand, stupid ones? He who planted the ear, does not hear? He who formed the eye, does not see? He who chastens the nations, will He not rebuke, Even He who teaches man knowledge? The LORD knows the thoughts of man, They are a mere breath....Psalm 94:5-11

And a couple of Scriptures stood out to me:

"For He knows false men, And He sees iniquity without investigating." Job 11:11

"To GOD the Lord belong escape from death." Psalm 68:20

The LORD helps them and delivers them; He delivers them from the wicked and saves them, Because they take refuge in Him. Psalm 37:40

Hate evil, all you who love the LORD, Who preserves the souls of His godly ones; He delivers them from the hand of the wicked. Psalm 97:10

"If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the furnace of blazing fire; and He will deliver us out of your hand, O king." Daniel 3:17

The Lord continued, "I AM God who delivered My righteous ones from the blazing furnace of Nebuchadnezzar. And so, shall I destroy the fiery darts of the wicked. For I am God and there is no other. Yet you who lay snares have stood in quicksand, which shall surely engulf you unless you repent and turn from your evil ways.

"Not matter how great My Wrath, My Mercy will be present to you when you repent."

And that's a beautiful promise from the Lord for our enemies, who we continue to pray for. I'm going to have a teaching on intercession coming very soon. We're collecting incidents to share with you. But until then, I appreciate your prayers. And we're learning a very great deal, and we're going to pass it on to you soon.

The Lord bless you with His wisdom and perseverance. Amen.

Obedience is My Protection for You

March 25, 2018

Lord, how unfathomable are your ways.

Dear Jesus, thank you so much for patiently teaching us that obedience carries with it the very greatest protection from the snares of the enemy. Not just the obedience of having permission. But the obedience of reading Your heart and Your wishes for us, and conforming ourselves to that.

Thank you, Lord, for taking such wonderful care of us and leading us higher and higher. Please, give us the strength we need to keep climbing. Amen.

Well, my dear loved ones, this was a most difficult three days for us, and I confess to you all I could barely stand under the pressure.

The intercession was very heavy and Ezekiel caught a painful infection. One of the medicines he was taking was working against him—he had a bad reaction. Which really tested his and our patience and faith.

But a powerful word and insight from the Lord did emerge and bring us up another section of the climb up the Mountain of Holiness. I have seen over and over again how the enemy works—in waves, touching all Christians. So, I have to believe many of you have also been tried to your faith limit and thrown into confusion in this last week.

But I want to exhort and encourage you that this is only temporary; it, too, will pass.

Well, it began... Ezekiel had a vision of the Lord weeping on the Cross and Our Father in Heaven pulling at His heart painfully. And when Ezekiel asked, “Why are you weeping, Lord?” he was given to understand that many fall into the enemy’s traps, because they do not follow His prompting in their hearts to obey. And if they did, painful situations could be avoided.

I know from my own past, that when I failed to obey that deep call in my heart, it has led to a dead end. Sometimes a nine-year dead-end, like my first marriage.

And also, that because we do not confess our sins one to another—the Lord brought up—we do not have the real, honest fellowship and prayer that could deliver us from our troubles.

This was one of my problems in the main-stream churches: problems were very often swept under the rug and personal struggles, fear of ridicule, or rejection kept me in a trap when what I badly needed was unconditional love, wisdom, encouragement and prayer.

Fellowship based on the Truth and reality brings us closer, so we can pray for the real issues in each other’s lives. And we are not always faithfully obedient to Holy Spirit’s inspirations, Jesus’ warnings, or the Father’s pleadings. Rather, have seen in myself how I have chosen to live myself, and go my own way—if only briefly. This is why I fail and fall into traps.

Dear ones, when we choose to go our own way, the enemy carefully crafts the snare to entangle us to the maximum.

As you know, from a recent message I was given, the Lord gave me permission to get a few bulbs to bring some Spring sweetness into the sunroom (which accounts for 1/2 of the house). Well, when the little package of bulbs came, we prepared some soil and planted them. But I'll tell you, they didn't look too good when they came out of the bag. Some of them were moldy. Some of them were dry and didn't have any 'plump' to them. And I thought, 'I don't think these are gonna live...' And I was right. A lot of them never sprouted.

But in the process, my mind drifted off to several plants, as well, that I knew must be pot-bound by now. So, I took on the additional task of giving them some new soil.

To make a long story short, my one-day project turned into a three-day project—and my ‘little’ effort turned into a big, draining effort. And the enemy was behind the bushes watching me, waiting for just the right time to strike—BAM!!!

And I found myself in the midst of an ordeal that threw me back into the first days of our marriage, when things did not go well.

You see, I was not prayed up, but exhausted from my little lilies and repotting plants—and that's what the enemy was waiting for. In this way, he had the advantage, speaking metaphorically: what normally would be a sliver in my finger turned into a ruptured appendix.

Oh, precious ones! The Lord knows what the enemy has planned ahead of time. So, He guides and steers us through obedience and we never connect with the ambushes that were planned for us.

However, when we are led about by a ring in our fleshly nose, the enemy can easily predict what we are going to do and set up an ambush. If only we would be faithful to avoid the bait, so many difficult things could be avoided.

Jesus began, "I weep for My Church, My Body. I weep, because they do not understand the value of transparency and the necessity of being open and asking for prayers. I want all to see that the attacks launched against you are universal, and if you will stand together as one Body, they can be overcome.

"You will see the tactics you are the victim of, being perpetrated on others. You will see the sweep of the enemy's hand and crushing blows that torment My Body simultaneously. You will then realize it is in unity of purpose, holiness and sticking together in obedience that conquers this.

"Instead of trying to prove that you are steadfast and strong, and have no need for the counsel and prayers of others, you will all see how abysmally the same you are. Multi-millionaire, homeless man; movie star, struggling high school student; farmer, business man. I don't care what your occupation is—you all have the same problems to conquer, the same battles, the same sins and vices, the same resistance to Truth. Those with greater amounts of money and those who are poorer. All of you are wired the very same way and face the very same challenges.

"To know this, in the depth of your souls, is to conquer your ego, pride and passions—which is what Satan uses to control you all, most effectively. How can you look down on another man or woman who is captive to pornography—when you are also? Are you not both equal in your weaknesses? It is about teamwork and overcoming evil through brotherly love and perseverance.

"Confess your sins, one to another' brings the lofty man down from his isolated mountaintop, and the soul dwelling deep in the desert up to the level plains, where both are equipped to support one another in their challenges. Fear of rejection and vulnerability cause men and women to wall them themselves up to protect their tenuous sense of security. So, they paint the acceptable picture and cleave to the status quo."

And everyone walks around with a little smiley mask...

"But the time is upon you where the status quo can cause you to lose your souls. And those who imagine they can handle their problems all on their own are sadly mistaken. When you all acknowledge your human condition, you come together to support one another—just as they did in the frontier days, when all banded together to fend off the attacks of their enemies.

"The enemy is all around you, My People. And he is counting on your need for security to control your decisions—even the decision to worship Me and only Me, when it brings you into conflict with those closest to you. When it jeopardizes your income. When it may alienate a child or loved one. There are more ways than can be counted to stealthily draw you away from Me—until you are out in the open, unprotected and walking straight into an ambush.

"But the soul that stays close to My heart will hear the quickening of the Spirit when a choice will bring you into danger.

"Many will apostatize—many. Because they will not bear the ridicule of swimming upstream. Once you all join hands and reveal your vulnerability to one another, the enemy loses the key factor of FEAR over you, because you might be rejected."

Fear of rejection. That is HUGE.

"Once our transparency reveals our shortcomings to one another, JEALOUSY is overcome by seeing the vulnerability of others. And your transparency makes for equality and understanding that I am no respecter of persons; these problems are universal to mankind."

Well dear family, at this point of the message, I sensed that I was missing something. Something a little personal and down to home for me—something the Lord was waiting for me to recognize in myself in Ezekiel's vision. I became very shaky and trembling as I realized part of Father's sorrow was over me. And I realized my little project took me away from Him for 3 days, not one. And made us highly vulnerable to spiritual attack, because my attention was watered-down on other things. Compromised.

Jesus began again, "Clare, what can I say to you? If you had refused the bait, it would not have been so severe. I look on you with great pity. I allow you to do that which you fancy will bring you joy, so that you can see what a huge, wide-open trap it is. And find your joy, without an admixture of sorrow—right here in My arms, Beloved.

"Yes. I want you to enjoy the beauty of nature. But you are all in a war zone, with grenades and bombs going off all around you. It requires ALL of you, My love. ALL of you. Because those who serve in the military do not get entangled in civilian affairs. Can you imagine a soldier in hostile territory admiring the flowers and planting a few more that might bloom on his way back?"

"When I told you to go ahead and plant a few bulbs, I knew exactly what you were about to encounter. Even the small handful you received were inferior. I wanted to demonstrate to you how unstable and futile and frustrating the world can be. I wanted to discourage you in the future from even thinking in that direction.

"In the meantime, Satan—knowing full well how you react every Spring—laid a trap for you. I gave you permission to walk into it, so that you would realize it's just not worth it. In Heaven, I have everything prepared for you. Flowers that will sing to you, Clare. They will turn their heads to follow you, even call out your name, inviting you to worship Me with them. Oh, dearest, unbelievable blessings await you!

"But now your enemies, and they are many, have drawn a bead on you. They have planned this, deliberately knowing that you would end up in a bigger project than you thought, and it would squeeze our prayer time; you would find it hard to concentrate, because you were so tired. Therefore, you would be weakened. They waited for this time to see if you would walk into the trap you have avoided through obedience for the last two years. This, indeed, is what I am talking about.

"Now you will look back on this time and see how critically painful it was—and you will realize your weapons are loaded with lethal force to hit the demons—not Hyacinth bulbs. And if you load them with flowers, you will have no defense.

"I am telling you for your own good, Beloved. Nothing in this world is worth sacrificing time with Me. NOTHING.

"And if you don't learn from the past, you will repeat it in the future. You must weigh out your options ever so carefully. You cannot afford to take your eyes off the road for one moment. Because I guarantee you: the Lion is waiting.

"Had you been only occupied with prayer, as you usually are, the same events would have taken place—but your reaction would have been much stronger, and it wouldn't have been so severe. I allowed this to show you there is no room for loss of focus and chasing after the winds. no matter how fragrant they are.

"Knowing this, and having learned this very difficult lesson, I do expect in the future that you will ignore those invitations to relax and enjoy the scenery.

"Oh, I love you so dearly, Clare! It truly pains Me to see you in such distress. But I believe, in the future, you will not relax your vigilance, but decline those invitations. There is so much more for you to do, but I need this lesson to sink deep."

Thank you, Lord.

"And for the rest of you, My precious Heartdwellers:"

'The flesh craves what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh. They are opposed to one another, so that you do not do what you want to do.' Galatians 5:17

'There is another law at work in your body, warring against the law of your mind and holding you captive to the law of sin that dwells within.' Romans 7:23

And the third thing that caught my eye when He sent me after that first Scripture:

'Those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh; but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit.' Romans 8:5

And in another place in the Scripture it talks about a soldier does NOT get entangled in civilian affairs. 2 Timothy 2:4

Jesus continued, "You are housing passions inside of you that will lure you into anything except My glory—if you give heed to them. I want to see you resolutely walking by these temptations, knowing that they are not worthy of your attention. Nor are they worthy of what I am calling you to do, and they have no place in your lives if you are faithfully striving for the highest and best in Our life together.

"I am praying for you, My blessed ones. Yes, I am interceding that you would receive the most precious graces, to be able to distinguish the vile and corrupt from the precious, and dedicate your lives accordingly."

And that was the end of His message.

So, please, dear ones. Please forgive me for my folly. And know that Heaven is waiting on the faithful ones to bring all men to repentance before our end.

And I'd like to mention to you that I really do appreciate those of you who have taken the time and made the sacrifice to faithfully support our mission. It's very important. We have three people on staff and it's very, very, very helpful when you make donations.

I've been receiving donations for other ministries, and I faithfully send those out. But I have to tell you, right now we're at an all-time low. And any donation you send our way, we're gonna use to cover salaries and basic expenses.

And whatever is left over, I promise you. We will give to the poor. We have got four ministries now that we are supporting. Two in South America and one in India—maybe three in South America—I'm not sure. Well, they, all of them, are saving trafficked children off the streets.

So, we are faithful to give to those people. But right now, we have to kind of tuck in and take care of our basic expenses.

So, thank you so much for being so kind and loving. So prayerful. So faithful.

The Lord bless you.

Tragic Death of a Teen Forced into Abortion

March 27, 2018

Lord, thank You for inviting us into this place of intercession. Please impart more courage and strength to our Team, that we may overcome our flesh and the lying tactics of the enemy, who is forever seeking to steal kill and destroy all the good You have given us. Amen.

Oh, my very precious Heartdwellers, what a sad and tragic thing happened tonight! The Lord caught Ezekiel up into the spirit, interceding with great pain in his abdomen. After we had prayed in the Spirit for a good 20 minutes, it was revealed to us that a teenager, by the name of Sarah, was being forced into a partial birth abortion by two older female relatives.

This young American teen, with shoulder-length blond hair, was the daughter of a very wealthy and influential family who had rejected the father of her baby, because of his social status and nationality. They had dragged her into the clinic or hospital against her will so powerfully that she had scratches and bruises on her arms where they gripped her. Not only did she want the child, but she was petrified of the procedure. But the aunt and mother didn't want to scandalize their socialite friends, so they insisted and forced her into this abortion.

The Lord only knows how the doctor went along with this plan.

First, Ezekiel saw them pulling the leg of the baby out, at which point he experienced great pain and he realized that what was happening was a botched abortion. That's what he heard in the spirit.

As they continued the procedure, she was bleeding profusely during the attempt to remove the child, piece by piece. Oh, my dear friends, this is too horrible to describe... How could anyone do such a thing?

Sarah was now unconscious at this point and her body was turning pale, until it was only a dull grey color with her beautiful blond hair being all that was left. The child was a bloody mass, but still barely alive.

Quickly, the doctor began writing nervously on a clipboard and it was obvious that they were changing out papers and starting new reports on what had actually transpired. He was trying to cover up what had just happened.

You know, people of privilege can afford to get someone to do such a procedure, although it may have been illegal in that state. This whole thing makes me sick to my stomach and sick at heart. How very terrible abortion is—and dangerous, too!

Oh child, why did you let them do it?

Ezekiel said she was afraid of her mother. I can imagine: a wealthy family, the threat of being disinherited, having to live in poverty must have been scary for her. Jesus took the baby to Himself. It was a little girl that He named “Grace.”

I prayed for the two women and the doctor, that they would be so remorseful that they would repent and never be a part of anything like that again. How sad! Here they wanted to end a life not ‘worthy of their name’, so they could save their beautiful daughter from scandalizing the family. And they ended up losing her. The state of her soul was not given to us. But to her credit, this child resisted and this was forced on her.

Oh, Lord, what happened to the young girl?

Jesus began, “She is with Me, because of My mercy. And she has her child, just as she wanted.

“Oh, My people, how tragic abortion is. How very tragic! I allowed this child to be given them to bring them into maturity and give them a much better future than what she would have had with her high-class family.

“She wanted to be loved, authentically loved, not used as a social fixture. How very terrible for them. She was a brilliant child and had so much more to live for. And the father of the child was a good man. He would have made a good father, regardless of the nationality. He wanted this child. Now he is heartbroken. He has lost both her and the baby.

“Men and women of this culture in America are SO blind. They think their lives revolve around what others call success. Yet, when they are older, they begin to see the real value they could have had if they hadn’t lived for themselves and the world.

“My heart is broken by abortion in this land,” the Lord continued. “It should be outlawed, and that is My Heart and desire for the whole world: a place where these undefended infants can survive.”

Dear ones, this kind of intercession takes its toll, not only on Ezekiel and I, but the prayer team members involved. Seeing Ezekiel suffer again and remembering the horror of that scene, I was so completely broken inside.

I came to the Lord begging for a strength to recover.

'Jesus, please help me. I am so weak. This night has been so tragic and my hope is so low, please strengthen me. I am way too little for this life. Seeing Ezekiel suffer this way is so hard and heart-breaking. His weakness. And seeing this story unfold, of this teenage girl and her baby.

'Please give us strength. Please help me. I am too weak for this job. And I honestly don't know how much more I can stand. Jesus carry me. Are you not my Spouse? Where are You, Lord? This cross is not easy; this cross is crushing me. Please help me. I feel like I've been annihilated inside and there is nothing left. I worry, too, about the other team members.

'Father, please give me some sign of hope. I am feeling so desolate. Please show me the way and strengthen me.'

After much sobbing, I got up to check on Ezekiel, who had fallen asleep after the ordeal. And he was awake and feeling much better. He was even able to stand and take care of some important things.

'Thank you, Father, for hearing my prayer. That was really a sign of hope.'

I really didn't know what to do. The last few episodes have been so intense, I was beginning to lose hope. And after tonight's situation, with the abortion and death of Sarah, my heart was just broken.

'Lord,' I cried out. 'Lord! I thought you told me that some things were just too heavy for me to see and You would protect me from them. Isn't this one of them? I am so exhausted from crying.'

Just silence on the other side. The Lord didn't begin to speak to me at all.

But I went to my personal rhema card, that I've collected all these years. And the first card that I picked was: "I will not offer a sacrifice to the Lord that costs me little or nothing." And next to that: "'Able gave his precious lamb."

Ezekiel is precious to me, as well as Sarah—the teen who lost her life, and Grace the baby.

Having seen all this suffering, I felt as though I was standing at the foot of the Cross. And that I felt much as Mary did when Jesus suffered. Even on my own little scale. This event cost her everything she had to give, and even left a hole in her heart from that day forth. Which is a tradition from the Apostles.

The night he (Ezekiel) went through the crucifixion last Friday, I felt very much like Mary. Oh, what sorrow.

But it came forth tonight that we had allowed tormenting spirits of Unbelief to compromise our faith that Ezekiel would be healed. I confess, I was beginning to flag in my faith after all we had been through. Yet I knew steadfastly that Jesus promised, and it was Jesus who told Me He would heal him. Constant attacks against our faith and seeing him suffer from this new infection began to dwindle my hope.

The Lord came back with the Bible Promise Reading: "That which I have promised, I shall surely do."

And encouraging cards, "Begin to pray now for deliverance, healing and conversion and believe that what you ask for in My Name will be done for you!"

Then He backed it up with a Scripture: "Truly, truly, I tell you, whatever you ask the Father in My name, He will give you. Until now you have not asked for anything in My name. Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete." John 16:23-24

And from the Passion Version:

"For here is eternal truth: When that time comes you won't need to ask me for anything, but instead you will go directly to the Father and ask him for anything you desire and he will give it to you, because of your relationship with me. Until now you've not been bold enough to ask the Father for a single thing in my name, but now you can ask, and keep on asking! And you can be sure that you'll receive what you ask for, and your joy will have no limits! John 16:23-24

And here, He is talking about relationship. Because of our relationship with Jesus, we can ask the Father and He will honor our request, because of our relationship and love for Jesus. How beautiful! That doesn't mean we use this to gain material goods, or selfish things, but only those things that will glorify God.

I have to say that no matter what the Lord allows in our day to day climb this mountain with Him, I know it is for our best. And I cannot turn back. His grace has strengthened me. He has answered my prayer. Seeing Ezekiel strong and feeling well again gave me courage and deep gratitude to Our Father in Heaven for His limitless patience and Mercy.

This intercession, guys, is so very different to me than anything I've ever encountered. But the Lord is revealing His heart, and the heart of His Father through these events. Allowing us to see them and experience them. We're beginning to see what the Father goes through. And the abortion issue right now is so very, very important.

Well, on top of all of that, now you can see more closely how weak I am. And that the Lord still sustains me. Even after all the miracles Jesus has faithfully done in our lives, I still must come to terms with and repent of Unbelief.

We walk by faith not by sight. But God, in His mercy, saw my heart needed a lift and restored Ezekiel to strength and peace tonight. All Glory to God!

And I want to take a moment to thank you, Heartdwellers, for responding to my request, so that we can continue to pay salaries for the people who work with us. And the outreach that we have.

And I wanted to let you know, too, that we are now tax exempt. And we're still going through the records. It took us two years to get this status. It was very complicated. But we are tax exempt and we can go through our records and provide you with receipts. But I'm not sure we'll be able to do it by the deadline for taxes. So, you may have to get an extension if you want receipts. 'Cause it'll take us a while to get those.

In any case, I wanted to thank you for caring and loving us. This is quite a journey we are on with the Lord. I've never seen anything like this. But I know that it's Him, and I know that sweet fruit is being borne from it. And I thank you so much for being a part of our Family and for praying for us.

And if you have stories to share and tell about what you've been through in intercession, we would love to hear them.

May His sweet peace cover and enfold you, and keep you. Amen.

You Have Left All for Jesus. Now What?

March 29, 2018

“I have come to give you life, life abundantly, so you may give life to others. I went about doing good. Follow Me.”

I had a beautiful night of worship with the Lord. We danced and danced. And I felt totally rejuvenated and restored. I rested in His arms, soaking up the love He was flooding me with. Oh, it was so special. And Oh, how I needed it! He was so tender and romantic. I fell totally in love all over again and didn't know which way was up. Just filled with His sweet joy and completion that we felt in one another.

Dear ones, remember: you are so very unique. You have a DNA imprint that is yours alone. And that circuit that was stamped on your being when you were created—it came from His image of you in His heart.

No one else in the world is like you. And therefore, no one else in the world can fill that spot in His heart. No one else can reconnect and satisfy the Father. Only you, when You give your life to Him. You have the foot that fits in the glass slipper, and He longs to see you return to His heart.

Jesus is in love with you, and when He is with you, you are the only one in the world for Him, from that perspective. He also longs to partner with you to bring salvation to the world.

So, as I came to sit down and listen for what He wanted to say, He gave me a beautiful, encouraging personal word. And then He went on to talk about all of you, my sweet Heartdwellers.

Jesus began, “So many are languishing in the world without understanding who they are. They roam as captives formed by the ‘system,’ lacking any inner direction at all. But you see, I shall give it to them as they press into Me. And I need you to continue to teach them that.”

And here, I just want to make a note that I've have several who have left the world, sold everything and just don't know what to do next. And He was addressing that in this message.

'Lord, I am at a loss to help them with direction when they strip down and don't know what to do next.'

He continued, “You tell them to follow their heart, don't you?”

Yes.

“Well, that is where I am working on them, in their hearts. They have inspirations, even as you did with the cherry blossoms.”

That was an event that set me off on my photography career when I was 20 years old.

“They get insights and inspirations, but because they have been so cloned by the systems of this world, they think it is impossible. With God, NOTHING is impossible. I want them to forsake ‘their father's house,’ for I have desired their beauty. I want to lead them by a path they have not known, by a way that is foreign to them.”

And just as a note, I wanted to say that, that inspiration that I had happened in Chicago when I was 20 years old. A storm came in, covered the cherry trees with snow—and it was absolutely, delightfully beautiful! And I took photographs of it. And I realized at that point that I wanted to be a nature photographer. Which is what I ended up doing. And the Lord started me there, following a dream.

But then, I came to the end of the road with that. And what I really longed for was HIM. And living in Him and helping others. So, it was a journey. But I was so oppressed when I was that age. And so far from Him, not knowing Him at all. And having encountered terrible disappointments and searching out Who He was with clergy.

He gave me something else to do that brought me great Joy. But it only lasted for a season, and then He let me encounter the hunger in my spirit for Him. And that's when things really started to change.

So. Moving on.

The last thing He said was, "I want them to forsake 'their father's house,' for I have desired their beauty. I want to lead them by a path they have not known, by a way that is foreign to them. I will speak to them in their hearts, but they must cultivate hearing Me.

"Every day I give them clues—and yet, they remain clueless, because they do not hear. Why are they deaf? Because the noise of the world has drowned out My voice. This is why substantial silence and prayer are so very necessary. Let them pursue their day waiting on Me to open the doors of their hearts to the wisdom that is from above.

"So much is governed by social norms. So much is suppressed by worldly parents. They must break totally free from that influence of parents and relatives and pursue their dreams, or they will walk in this world as though they were dead. And in a way, they are dead. Dead to their dreams and destinies that I have planted in their being from before Time.

"But so many numb-out with media, music, and films; entertainments of all sorts. They numb-out, because the precious thing I planted in them has been put in the casket of unimaginative cultural norms and impossibilities. And then it is buried. It has long since died and been put to rest.

"But in their hearts, there is unrest. 'What have I not done?' they ask. My answer? 'You have not listened very carefully. You have not heard Me. If you had heard Me, you would not be in this place of uncertainty and conformity. You would be pursuing your dream.'

"I want My children, My lambs, and My sheep to know beyond a shadow of a doubt: you are fearfully and wonderfully made. And in your very DNA lies your destiny, which I have brought forth for a time such as this. Dream bigger, My people—dream bigger!

"I do not mean a television ministry and fame. I mean that deeply hidden secret desire to live a life so very different from what you are now living.

"A life lived 'outside of the box.'

"'It's not practical.' people will say. And will you swallow that, and walk away from your dreams to lead a lukewarm, wishy-washy life? Or will you strike out in faith and follow the dream, no matter what it costs you?

"Some of you can see your destinies in your childhood and growing up; things happened that left a deep impression.

"You remember, Clare, how you used to feed people? That was a foreshadowing of your hands-on ministry providing food for the poor—and not just any old food, but really choice food. Do you remember how you took time with the hurting and the misunderstood? Do you recall the long and deep conversations about truth and life? You were so lost and searching. It was very disappointing for you, to have the answers you didn't get from clergy.

"You hungered and sought to know the Truth: what's beyond the face of the ordinary? Truly, IS there a God? And who is He? A vapor, a force, impersonal, unknowable?

"Do you remember the pain that caused you? Existentialism and no concrete answers, only more desolation and darkness—everywhere you turned. Truly these were the things that you longed to know, but did not find in every godless spirituality of the world. Journey after journey and nothing but blind alleys. Dead ends.

"And now you have found Me—or rather, accepted Me. For I have been with you throughout your life. And driven by the pain of not knowing the Truth, your heart is to share Me with searching aching hearts. This is your journey's end. Whether it be in song or writing, you have found your mission in life: to bring My love to others. A personal, pure, yet intimate love where souls can find their peace in Me. Their meaning—in ME. Their life—in ME.

"My children, for those of you who are hurting and longing to know, look deeply into your hearts. What has been your deepest desire and driving force? What has brought you the greatest joy in your life? Not the fleeting joys of obtaining an object—but a profound joy of knowing you just did something that brought you a certain kind of fulfillment you've always longed for.

"My people, the answer is within your heart, and a response to the needs of others. Look for that combination and act on it. Find a way to help and bring others to Me and pursue that.

"You may even start very small, collecting food from the market and passing it out to those living in the park. Listen to their concerns, spend time with them, pray for them and share from your own substance. Find a way to make your life count bringing Me to others, whether it be food or prayer or music. Give it to others generously and I will increase you. I will show you the way while you are serving even in the littlest endeavors."

Lord, some people ask me if they should go to school and get a degree in theology. I have seen the disastrous results of that. They learn about the Bible, but do not know God. They become worldly, building programs to grow churches—worldly churches—but haven't a clue as to who You are.

Jesus replied, "University is not necessary. Anointing, compassion and love are necessary. I will provide ALL these things. Unless I specifically lead you to Bible College, you can be equipped right where you are by simply going about doing good, studying Scripture, praying. Praying for others and seeking Me. Trust Me that I reward good wills. You cannot out-give Me. If you prove by your sincerity that you want with all your heart to serve Me, start with what you already have and add to that. I will do all the rest.

“Learning brings pride; charity edifies.

“It is much easier to turn a moving ship than one standing still in the water. Once you are underway, you are moving and focused on helping others. One thing leads to another. Then I will drop little hints in your heart and begin to lead you deeper and deeper.

“Up until three years ago, Ezekiel and Clare devoted their lives to finding hungry families and feeding them. People recognized the value they had in bringing Me to the community, and they began to support them. They also had prayer groups, where Ezekiel led worship and Clare taught.

“You have a gift; use it. You have the ability to pray, to listen and encourage; use it. Find a way to live selflessly and bring Me to those you encounter.

“Stay in My Word and bring that Word to the hungry. Not with condemnation, but with encouragement—and if necessary, very gentle correction. But you must be aware that you are dealing with souls that have been brow-beaten and told they were worthless from birth—and they see Me as just another judge who condemns them. They do not see My unconditional love, My understanding and compassion. And that I am totally FOR them. I do NOT condemn them. I am for them, and for their good. And I have a future for them.

“You—show this to them. They hunger for it. Bring it to them, make it come alive. Whether it is in a loaf of bread, a song, an encouraging word—makes no difference. Feed My lambs and My sheep that wander the hillsides with no one to care for them. I will anoint you to do it.

“Feed them and I will be with you.”
