...and the lust of the eyes is not of the Father, but is of the world...And the world passeth away... (John 2:16-17)

After the first photograph was taken in 1827, nude photography became an elite form of entertainment that could not be contained to limited audiences. People worldwide translated the sexual perversions outlawed by God in the Bible since the beginning of time into printed pictures of lewd nudity. As technology increased, pornography developed into what is today a billion-dollar industry epitomized by interactive websites accessible by children on the computer.

The government never made pornography illegal for fear of violating the Bill of Rights, but it rated it X for limited audiences and contained it to special stores. Yet pornography is responsible for most, if not all, sexual crimes around the world. In addition to that, any man without the discipline to control a pornography habit often ends up committing adultery and destroying his marriage. Pornography involves the hypnotic device of nudity—the lust of a man’s eyes. Young people today being driven by lewdness in media are having children out of wedlock, and sex diseases are running rampant. Is there any way to overcome the pornography habit?

As with any sin problem, the power of the Holy Spirit can help a man to overcome such a habit. The Holy Spirit is received immediately when a man gets saved. Getting saved is realizing that you are a sinner (Romans 3:23), and that the payment for sin is first death (Romans 6:23) and then Hell (Revelation 20:15). That is the fate of all men, but: for God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever shall believeth in him shall not perish but have everlasting life. (John 3:16). The blood that Jesus shed on the cross pays for our sin so that we do not have to go to Hell to pay for it our selves. All that is required to obtain the gift of salvation for the work Jesus already did for you is to ask, believing in your heart: for whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved (Romans 10:13). You may use the prayer on the reverse of this pamphlet. Because there is nothing more pleasing to God than the pure and holy man.
