2022 MEMBERSHIP

The Richmond Civic and Commerce values each business' on-going participation, as we strive to make Richmond a great place to call home. Our mission is to promote business and enhance the well-being of the Richmond Community.

To help fulfill our mission, we have decided to restructure Richmond Civic and Commerce. Restructuring allows us to add an executive director position who will oversee the marketing, social media communications, and event planning. We are excited to welcome Emily Monnens to this position! We look forward taking this step – providing valuable connections and resources for all of our members!

Below are some of the Civic and Commerce's upcoming meetings and events for 2022.

- ❖ SAVE THE DATE!! Richmond State of the Community Social - May 6, 2022 at The Olde Coliseum. More details to follow.
- ❖ Board meetings are 2nd Wednesday each month; Location TBD.
- ❖ Annual RCC member meeting; Location and date TBD
- ❖ Richmond River Lake Days: July 14, 15, 16, 2022
- ❖ Tree-Mendous Night in Richmond: December 2, 2022

Your membership dues from this past year have gone a long way to fund several Richmond Civic & Commerce projects, such as:

- ❖ Richmond Branding Initiative
- ❖ The annual Scholarship Program
- ❖ Cold Spring Business Showcase
- ❖ CC Brat Stand
- ❖ Donation towards Richmond Pickle Ball Court
- ❖ Blue Bike Program
- ❖ City wide Clean-up/Hazardous Clean-up
- ❖ Richmond Bucks
- ❖ Tree-Mendous Night in Richmond
- ❖ Marketing Events/Campaigns throughout the year

We appreciate your continued support and involvement of the Richmond Civic and Commerce. Attached you will find a short registration for your business. Please fill out and return the registration form with your membership dues of $150.00.

Sincerely,
Emily Massmann
President

The things that Richmond Civic & Commerce does can only happen when we as an organization come together and make them happen. We need your help keeping our events and activities fun and exciting.

As business owners, managers, employees take the opportunity to network with others and make yourself visible in the community, choose one or more of the following activities or committees to become more involved as a member this year! The commitment can be for as little as 2 hours to as many as you like. A board member will contact you with further information.

WE NEED YOU!
