Immaculate Conception Parish Mission

To proclaim the good news of the Gospel; to build community among the parishioners that we may journey in our faith together, giving witness to love and unity; to serve the needs of others in whatever form they may exit in our midst and to celebrate the realities of our faith together.

St. Patrick Parish Mission

As a church community here at St. Patrick, we want to know, love and serve Jesus in our efforts in: Christian formation/faith development; worship; social services; and stewardship of resources.

Spirited Life

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

We are in a time when many seem to live with deep anger, much of which may come from fear generated by a sense of loss of control over our lives. We struggle to control the economy, our borders, the spread of disease, the violence in our cities and on our roads. Places once deemed safe—our schools, stores, and churches—have been invaded by violence. Ironically, those who feel most threatened by violence tend to turn to violence as a solution.

Do the scripture readings on this feast of Pentecost offer any hint of light as to how we might move forward? Saint Paul’s Letter to the Romans contrasts living in the flesh with living in the spirit that has been given to us. To “live in the flesh” is Paul’s code word for living by our baser instincts—lust for power, revenge, and pleasure; anger; greed—all of which focus on ourselves. By contrast, to live in the spirit is to respond not from our baser instincts but rather to choose a more noble path, to take the high road, to care for the common good. For Paul, living in the flesh is a dead end, unable to bring us to life now or in the hereafter. To live in the spirit is to live in God, already in this life. Thus, Paul cautions that we not “fall back into fear,” something that arises from our preoccupation with the flesh. ●

Reflect

What situations or “triggers” cause me to act out of my baser instincts?

Your Gifts to God!

Thank You!

Dear Padre,

My Catholic friend says she speaks in tongues and does not feel she needs an interpretation as she does so. She writes down the exchange as she listens to others. What does the Catholic Church say about speaking in tongues? How should I respond if she asks to pray for me in this way?

Good for your friend. A robust spiritual practice is a real grace from God. At the same time, it seems that a gentle reminder, albeit a respectful one, to your friend might include the wisdom of St. Paul. In 1 Corinthians, Paul cautions that the person who speaks in tongues must ask for interpretation of what is spoken so that it may be confirmed. There is real wisdom offered here. It is also helpful to remember that in the Christian understanding of supernatural gifts, such gifts are not intended solely for the individual person but always for the well-being of the community and the common good (1 Cor 12:7). Keeping this integrated and balanced understanding as an essential component of the manifestation of the charismatic gifts of the Holy Spirit will only lead to good and to a more powerful experience of God's grace and life. In the Christian life, it is never about just the individual, but always inclusive of the experience of our brothers and sisters in Christ. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

The Holy Spirit...makes believers attentive to the problems and events of their time.... We run the risk of making a museum piece out of faith....! [The Holy Spirit]...brings...the faith up to date: this is his job. [He] does not bind himself to passing epochs or trends, but brings into today the relevance of Jesus, risen and living.

Breaking the Silence of Abuse - As a diocese, we are committed to breaking the silence of abuse. When someone is reporting abuse, we must acknowledge their pain and how difficult it is to talk about it. False allegations are very rare. Our initial response to someone who is disclosing abuse for the first time must be compassionate. For those who need to report abuse, encourage them to contact our Victims Assistance Coordinator, Jacqueline Baldwin, (573-694-3199) and to make use of the appropriate State of Missouri hotline (1-800-392-3738) or the Attorney General's clergy abuse online form. All of this information is also on our website, under the 'report abuse' tab. For those who want information or want to convey a message to the diocese, please encourage them to write to us at reportabuse@diojeffcity.org.

Immaculate Conception Altars

We have not been able to find a place to store the old altars. If we cannot find a place to store them, they will have to be destroyed. If you can help us out, or know of a parish that could use them, please let Dennis Benney (573-590-3300) or the parish office (573-564-2375) know.

2026 Church Calendar

We have an opening for a sponsor for IC’s 2026 Calendars. The cost is around $200.00. If you are interested, please contact the parish office at 573-564-2375 or email: imm-con@sbcglobal.net. Thank you ~

There will be NO Catholic Education Commission Meeting on June 17th. It was an error on the June Calendar.

Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

John 20:21-23

In this profound act of trust, Jesus, through the gift of the Holy Spirit, empowers the Apostles to represent him, carrying out their mission with mercy, courage, and humility.

Looking for a Pool

The Harvest Picnic Committee has an idea for a fun new event. If anyone is willing to donate a pool similar to the one pictured, about 8-10’ wide, please contact Julie Worsham at 573-489-2778. This pool would only be used once and will not be able to be re-turned. A used pool would be perfect!

Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki Elected New Administrator of Diocese of Jefferson City

Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicki has been elected to serve as the administrator of the Diocese of Jefferson City. He is the first to hold the title of administrator in the 70-year history of our local Church.

The election was held by ballot at the rectory of the Cathedral of Saint Joseph with the eight priests of the diocesan College of Consultors participating. It follows the installation of the Most Reverend Shawn McKnight as Archbishop of Kansas City in Kansas on May 27, 2025. Archbishop McKnight's leadership of the Diocese of Jefferson City, which began in 2018, ceased when he assumed his new role in Kansas.

As administrator, Msgr. Kurwicki is charged with maintaining the essential operations of the diocese. According to Canon Law, a diocesan administrator may not enact major changes or initiatives, as those responsibilities are reserved for the next bishop, who will be appointed by Pope Leo XIV.

Msgr. Kurwicki, currently serves as pastor of St. Peter Parish in Jefferson City and was Vicar General under the previous Bishop. He resides at the St. Peter rectory in Jefferson City.

“I humbly accept the responsibility of serving as diocesan administrator of the Diocese of Jefferson City,” said Msgr. Kurwicki. “I thank the College of Consultors for their trust, and I ask for your prayers as we work together in the coming months and prepare for the appointment of the next Bishop of Jefferson City.”

Msgr. Kurwicki will continue his role as pastor of St. Peter while fulfilling the duties of diocesan administrator. His appointment will conclude upon the installation of the new bishop.

There is no official timeline for the selection of a new bishop. Once Pope Leo XIV has appointed a new bishop to lead the Diocese of Jefferson City, and he has accepted, the announcement will be published in the daily Vatican Bulletin. This could happen at any time. However, in recent similar situations in the United States, it has taken several months to a year for a new bishop to be named.
