

Great Plains Child Care Resource & Referral

Great Plains Child Care Resource & Referral Center (GPCCRR) is a non-profit organization that works with child care providers, businesses, parents and community organizations to help promote the availability of quality child care services in southwest Oklahoma. The primary mission is to improve the quality, accessibility and affordability of child care for Oklahoma's working families. We are a member of the Oklahoma Child Care Resource & Referral Association, a statewide network of eight regional child care resource and referral agencies.

Headquartered in Hobart, GPCCRR has provided services to families and providers since 1999. Other on site Outreach offices are located in Cache and Altus. GPCCRR serves Beckham, Caddo, Comanche, Cotton, Custer, Grady, Greer, Harmon, Jackson, Jefferson, Kiowa, Roger Mills, Stephens, Tillman, and Washita counties. Great Plains Child Care Resource and Referral Center is sponsored by Great Plains Youth and Family Services and the Oklahoma Department of Human Services Division of Child Care.
