President's Corner

Hi – Thank you for the opportunity to be the president of the guild this year! I am excited to see what this year will bring. – A little about me – I started sewing when I was nine with my grandmother, she was happy to teach me (she made our clothes and barbie clothes to match) – I continued to sew for years, and loved it, baby clothes, crafty things, costumes, prom dresses....and then my niece asked if I could put all her husband's t-shirts in a quilt, I thought that doesn't seem too difficult (was I wrong) and boy howdy did the long arm that got my first quilt have quite the mess to deal with – (thank you Rose Luce) After learning several things from Rose about what I could do to improve I found a "sampler quilt along" on line and that's where I really started learning how to quilt. I am still quite the novice, but really enjoy all the women quilters that have been added to my circle of friends.

Art in the Library

If you have a small quilt (40 inches or less) which you would like to have displayed in 2024 in the Napa County Library, please email me a close-up photo, with the dimensions (width X length) and title of your quilt. The quilt will need a sleeve at the top, plus a label with your name attached to it. At this time, the quilt does not have to be totally finished, as 2024 is a long time from now !

January Program-QUILTER JOY LILY discusses:101 Quilts Later:Why I Did It & What I Learned

The tradition of creating a series of 100 related art works goes back at least to 1830's Japan where several blockprint artists competed to create 100 views of local sights.After hearing Sonia Philip speak about how and why she sewed 100 dresses Joy Lily got an itch to create 100 of something myself. When the San Francisco Quilt Guild requested small quilts for premature babies at Kaiser Hospital she quickly whipped up a few 24" x 24" quilt tops. What fun! Joy challenged herself to make 100 tops,and see what this process taught her. By quilt # 9, she realized that this was also a design project.

See the quilts and hear about the trials and victories of Joy's quilting journey.

NVQG December 10, 2022 Meeting

The meeting was called to order by President Rose Luce at 10:08AM.

The 2023 Opportunity Quilt will be displayed at the January meeting; ticket packets will be available at that time.

The currently nominated slate of the Board of Directors was announced:

President: Dani Neuman Workshop/Program Vice Presidents: Kelly Van Camp (incumbent)

Margret Gaeddert Secretary: Mary Jo Kent (incumbent) Treasurer: Ellen Wulf (incumbent)

The vote was taken, and all officers were elected unanimously. Rose discussed her retirement as president after five years of service; she plans to continue to be active in the guild on the Quilts to Share committee, and publicity.

The secretary Mary Jo Kent confirmed the publication of the minutes in the newsletter; since no additions or corrections were announced, they were approved as published. Treasurer Ellen Wulf stated the guild bank balance as.

VP Kelly Van Camp announced sign-ups for the January workshop with Lorraine Woodruff-Long. The workshop will be on January 28, from 10-4, at the Orchard Avenue mobile home community center. The cost for the workshop will be $40.00.

The speaker for the January meeting will be Joy Lilly. The workshop instructor for the February meeting will be Rose Luce; the subject is scrappy applique – the only cost to guild members will be for lunch. Submissions for the newsletter are due by the 23rd of the month; Nikki attempts to publish the newsletter in a timely fashion, and apologized for the lateness of the most recent newsletter.

Linda Feutz reminded guild members that they need to submit photos for the application for the 2024 Art in the Library exhibit. Photos can be e-mailed to Linda; the maximum size suggested is 40”.

Cheryl Bundy thanked guild members for their participation in the Block of the Month – there were enough submissions for two lucky winners. Cheryl mentioned that if members forget their blocks at home, they can bring them to the next meeting for distribution to the previous month’s winner(s).

Next month’s BOM was on display, and the pattern was available for pick-up.

There was a drawing for the fat quarters winner.

Prize drawings pulled tickets for four winners.

Membership stated that 34 members had signed in. Birthday names were read, and rug mugs were given out to those in attendance.

Membership dues are now being accepted for next year.

As a preliminary to the potluck luncheon, judges Margret Gaeddert and Theresa Harrington awarded three prizes for holiday-themed place settings.

It was noted that there were some quilts positioned at the front door for volunteers to finish for the Quilts to Share program.

After Show and Tell, the meeting was adjourned at 10:45AM, to be followed by the potluck luncheon, and awarding of prizes for the “Show Us Your Notion” game.

Request from your VP of programs-Kelly Van Camp:

Hi all you crafty people with GIANT stashes of fabric:

I am making an "I Spy" quilt for baby. I need 5" squares of fussy cut "things" the more random the better. Fruits, animals, sports, bugs, random items, cartoon characters, etc... you get the idea. I just need one five inch square with item fussy cut in middle and it will go on a hexagon paper piece and into quilt. Thank you so much!!!
