“FELLOWSHIP... THAT YOUR JOY MAY BE FULL”
‘Our Stained Glass Window’

I John 1:1-3 Fellowship with God the Father, Jesus and us.

Mark 5:36-42 Jesus turns a house of grief into a House of Love.

Where there is LOVE there is LIFE., there is ASTONISHMENT...
...GREAT ASTONISHMENT!

Reflection on previous messages of WHY:

1. Why Has Kevin been teaching of Jesus and the woman at the well?
Leave your past in the past. Jesus is with you today.
2. Why has Melissa been speaking on trust?
The more you love God, the more you trust God.
3. Why have I been speaking on Jesus and the dead daughter?
Jesus’ love... always brings life.
4. Why, last Sunday, did Wendy bring up that broken piece of glass in the window?

LETS examine your stained glass window. STAINED... interesting word.

To list only a few... of the broken pieces that people have experienced in their lives that are here in this church.

We have had or do have.. every piece of broken glass I can think of.

“BROKEN GLASS... BROKEN LOVE.”

TODAY... we are speaking of letting God love you completely.

WHERE THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS.. there is liberty..., you are set free..., where the Spirit of Love is there is life and healing.

Jesus said... “AND THEY WERE ASTONISHED WITH A GREAT ...ASTONSHMENT.”

Genesis 50:20 “You meant evil against me, but God used it for good.”

We all have had some broken glass... but look at the rest of the window... your life!

That is because “WE” are in the “House of Love”... with the “God of Love.”
