About the Sher Kung Summer Fellowship

The Sher Kung Summer Fellow will provide core support to the LGBTQ2S+ Legal Clinics, including conducting intake and screening interviews, scheduling clients, researching legal issues to support volunteer attorneys, conducting case assessment interviews, and drafting community outreach materials. The Fellow will also have the opportunity to create a self-guided project; e.g., an advocacy memo, self-help packet, informational video, Know Your Rights postcard, or training.

The Summer Fellow will also provide core support to other QLaw Foundation programs, including community outreach to LGBTQ2S+ individuals and families, pandemic-related legal assistance, cross-organizational coalition work, training and coordinating attorney volunteers, providing legal advice, document drafting, and courtroom appearances for second parent adoptions, parentage confirmation orders, and other family law needs, as well as drafting community outreach materials.

Hours: Work hours are typically Monday-Friday, 10am-6pm, though some evening and weekend hours are available for legal clinic support. The Fellow must work 10 weeks in coordination with the academic calendar. Unfortunately we cannot support partial-summer or part time interns.

Compensation: QLaw Foundation provides a stipend of $8,500 for the summer, subject to employment taxes.

To apply: Please send a resume and cover letter detailing the experience, skills, or other qualifications that lead you to pursue community-centered legal services. Please include any experience you may already have with client contact, community outreach, and describe your relationship with LGBTQ2S+ communities.
