Biography

Travis Daniel Fischer, 47, passed away peacefully in the presence of his family due to Covid-19 complications. All who knew Travis knew he was "one of a kind" with his die-hard love for the Detroit Lions and his extensive Batman collection. He could quote any Batman Movie made, and if you needed a movie recommendation, he was your guy. Travis dedicated many years to coaching football and baseball at North Huron, Bad Axe, and Unionville-Sebewaing Area Schools. Many of those athletes became lifelong friends - even family. Travis will be remembered and missed by so many. His family would like to extend their most heartfelt gratitude to the members and staff of Scheurer Hospital and McLaren Bay Region for the dedicated care and compassion they gave Travis during his stay.
