

June 5, 2022 Pentecost Sunday

Did you know...?

- After we celebrate the Resurrection, Ascension and Pentecost, Ordinary Time resumes Monday, following the Solemnity of Pentecost. Ordinary Time is called "ordinary" not because it is common but simply because the weeks of Ordinary Time are numbered. The Latin word ordinalis, which refers to numbers in a series, stems from the Latin word ordo, from which we get the English word order. Thus, the numbered weeks of Ordinary Time, in fact, represent the ordered life of the Church—the period in which we live our lives neither in feasting (as in the Christmas and Easter seasons) or in more penance (as in Advent and Lent), but in watchfulness and expectation of the Second Coming of Christ.
- Green vestments and altar cloths have traditionally been associated with Ordinary Time, the period in which the Church founded by the risen Christ and enlivened by the Holy Spirit began to grow and to spread the Gospel to all nations.
- In any given year, there are either 33 or 34 Sundays in Ordinary Time. Because Easter is a moveable feast, and thus the Lent and Easter seasons "float" from year to year, the number of Sundays in each period of Ordinary Time vary from the other period as well as from year to year.
- There two periods of Ordinary Time. First one after the Feast of Epiphany until Ash Wednesday and the second after the Solemnity of Pentecost going until the First Sunday of Advent.

Gracious God,

We ask for the health and wellbeing of all pregnant mothers, for the life and dignity of unborn children, and for wisdom and courage for those in the medical profession. We ask that you move the hearts of our Supreme Court justices to follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit, especially in the Dobbs Supreme Court Case.

We lift up to you: John Roberts, Clarence Thomas, Stephen Breyer, Samuel Alito, Sonia Sotomayor, Elena Kagan, Neil Gorsuch, Brett Kavanaugh, and Amy Coney Barrett. We ask for the gift of wisdom for the Mississippi Attorney General Lynn Fitch and her team. For everyone whose lives have been impacted by abortion, we ask for healing. May our nation once more protect defenseless children in the womb. St. Joseph, Defender of Life, intercede for us. We offer our petitions through Christ our Lord. Amen.
