

MISS ELSIE M. GWINN

Miss Elsie M. Gwinn, 78, Elkton resident died Tuesday at the Scheurer hospital, Pigeon, following an extended illness.

She was born December 10, 1888 in Chandler township. She was a retired school teacher who taught for 35 years in Detroit.

Survivors are three sisters, Mrs. Amie Hoffman, Miss Lillian Gwinn, both of Elkton, and Mrs. Hazel Fisher, Bloomfield Hills.

Remains are at the Colgan Funeral chapel, Elkton, where friends may call after 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Funeral services will be 2:30 p.m. Friday at the funeral chapel. Rev. E.D.K. Isaacs and Rev. Ellis Hart will officiate.

Burial will be in Caseville cemetery.

Miss Elsie M. Gwinn

1888 - 1967

Miss Elsie Gwinn passed away early Tuesday morning in Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon.

She was born December 10, 1888 in Chandler Township, and was a retired school teacher.

She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Amie Hoffman and Miss Lillian Gwinn, both of Elkton, and Mrs. Hazel Fisher of Bloomfield Hills.

Funeral services will be held Friday, September 1 at 2:30 p.m., in the Colgan Funeral Chapel, Elkton. Rev. E. D. K. Isaacs, Elkton, and Rev. Ellis Hart, Walled Lake, will officiate with burial in the Caseville cemetery.