

Christine Krajniak, 94, our loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother and friend, went to meet her family in heaven on Thursday, Sept. 1, 2016. She was a woman of strong faith. Christine enjoyed spending time with her family and planning special meals for all occasions. She always had a smile to share with others. Christine will be fondly remembered by many.

Christine Jechorek was born on March 11, 1922, in Alpena, to the late Jacob and Theresa (Sztyma) Jechorek. She married Julius L. Krajniak on Dec. 1, 1952. He preceded her in death on June 29, 1992.

Christine was the proud loving mother to Jeanette (Austin) Peruski and Edward Austin; proud loving grandmother to Paul (Sue) Peruski, Teresa Pawlowski, Sharon (William) Taylor and Nancy (Richard) Ahrens; proud loving great-grandma to Cynthia (Hulen) Martin, Kendall Peruski, Alex Peruski, Zachary Taylor, Nicholas Pawlowski, Jeremy Pawlowski, Gabriel Taylor, R.J. Ahrens, Jennifer Pawlowski, Savannah Ahrens, Coleton Taylor and Allison Peruski; and proud loving great-great-grandmother to Adam and Jonathan Martin.

Christine was preceded in death by her son, Eddie Austin; son-in-law, Adam Peruski; great-grandchild, Gabriel Taylor; brother, Raymond Jechorek; and by several in-laws and friends. Mrs. Krajniak is at St. Anne Church of All Saints Parish on Saturday, Sept. 10, 2016, from 10 a.m. until the time of Mass of Christian Burial at noon, with the Rev. Polycarp Mblarawa officiating. Funeral arrangements have been handled by the Bannan Funeral Home.

Interment will take place at Holy Cross Cemetery.

Memorials made be made to St. Anne Catholic Church or The Friendship Room. - See more at:
