2019 All-State Volleyball awards announced

JAMESTOWN, N.D. – Nine Western Dakota Association (WDA) players were selected to the 2019 all-state volleyball teams, joining nine players from the Eastern Dakota Conference (EDC). WDA regular season champion and West Region Tournament champion Century led all WDA teams with three players selected. Jamestown had two players named while Bismarck High, Dickinson, Mandan and St. Mary's each had one player. Class A champion Fargo Davies had three players named to the team which led all EDC schools. WF Sheyenne had two selected. Fargo Shanley, G.F. Red River, Valley City and West Fargo each had one player named to the first or second team. The players were nominated and voted on by coaches in each of the respective conference.

Jamestown's Kameron Selvig along with Fargo Davies' Kenzie Langlie and Madison Langlie were named senior athlete of the year while Carolyn Olson of Fargo Davies was named coach of the year.
