Information from Barbara:

On Saturday morning, I will distribute a packet of materials which will include a view finder, sketch template, a sheet of composition formats, a pair of black peepholes, and steps on making a plein air painting. I will explain all about my procedure for producing a successful plein air sketch, followed by a demonstration. We will break for lunch and then we will do a painting in the afternoon. There is much to choose from in Stevensville, from the charming historic district to views of the Chesapeake Bay. At 4:00 there will be a critique. On Sunday, you will do two more sketches followed by the 4:00 critique.
