

WHAT IF

By John Lipinski

What if I wrote you a song, to tell you all the reasons
And I put down the words of how I feel
What if those words became reality, and touched your heart with gladness
Maybe these two hearts could finally heal
Then I made a list of everything, I'd want for my life's partner
And that list, just sort of fit you to a tee
What if I looked into the future, can't envision life without you
A prisoner whose love can set you free

What if I could care, what if I should share
What if you believe, that I would never leave
What if the Lord above, approved this wondrous love
What if I needed you, and you, really needed me

What if I know, you're too busy, I've already checked your schedule
But, I'll be home waiting, when you come in
What if my life's main ambition, is just to make you happy
Realize a simple truth within
What if the most important mission, is to help our children's children
Grow up and be all that they can be
You know this world would be a better place, if everyone was lucky
To have someone like you, just for me

What if you and me, became a we
What if when and how, became right now
What if my one and only, replaced only lonely
What if you and me, should take some vows

What if I could say, that I found a way
What if you believe, that you can trust in me
What if the Lord above, approved this special love
Because I needed you, and you, really needed me
