

May 16th '19

Dear Sir or Madam,

The enclosed papers were recently found with other old mementos saved by my father, CHARLES GERNERD. They must have come from his father, HERBERT GERNERD who was the ticket agent for the Lehigh Valley Railroad in Lehigh.

The GERNERD twins were born and raised in Coplay in 1910. Their mother was Rachel Meyle born in the late 1880's. She was the daughter of Gottlob Meyle prior to her marriage to HERBERT GERNERD. I have been told that the Egg Star Bakery was started by Gottlob Meyle.

The information in the unauthored papers appears to be quite precise. I hope it may be interesting and useful to the history of your town.

Sincerely,
Patricia Gernerd Aldrich