The On The Court (OTC) waiver and release document (see below) contains our clear and comprehensive online privacy policy describing practices for personal information collected online from children.

The waiver and our online privacy policy are available online at:

<https://www.on-the-court.net/otc-waiver-and-coppa.html>

1. The Waiver must be signed and returned before the start of any session. It is a direct notice to parents and is verifiable parental consent, with limited exceptions, before collecting personal information online from children.
2. By signing the waiver, parents grant consent to OTC's for collection and internal use of a child's information, but prohibits them from disclosing that information to third parties or any other use.
3. Access to a child's personal information is available upon request from a parent to review and/or have the information deleted.
4. Parents are informed that OTC will not further use or collect a child's personal information beyond its use during your child's participation.
5. OTC will maintain the confidentiality, security, and integrity of information they collect from children. Information will NOT be released to any third parties.
6. OTC will only retain personal information collected online from a child during your child's participation. All information will be deleted using reasonable measures to protect against its unauthorized access or use at the end of the child's participation.

*Media Release from Waiver

MEDIA RELEASE: Coaching sessions will be conducted via Zoom or a similar software (Platform). You are responsible for ensuring the participant has sufficient internet access to view the sessions online. The Platform's terms and conditions are incorporated by reference into this agreement. You agree to waive liability against OTC and hold OTC harmless at least to the same extent as the Platform pursuant to the Platform's terms of service and conditions.

You agree to monitor your child's use of The Platform. OTC is not responsible for videos/images viewed while using the Platform or videos/images viewable to others during and before the coaching sessions.

I sign this release offering my consent and understanding that these camp ZOOM sessions WILL be video recorded for use among the students enrolled that week, and only that week, but prohibiting OTC from disclosing to third parties. I also understand that personal individual recording and duplication of these sessions by parents is strictly forbidden, for the confidentiality, security and student privacy.
