 Weather

A cloudy, dreary day in the 80's at Fox Hollow. The course was in great shape and the rough once again was a challenge. Everyone was over par and the best of the group were Ron Ceglia Sr and Jim Rinaldi who tied with a net 72. Ron Ceglia had 3 birdies, all on par 3's, two of them chippies and won both the gross and net par 3's. Jim had 3 greensies

Sixteen guys showed up to play golf on the Fourth of July. We tossed 16 balls on the practice green to determine groups (Just Kidding Doug!). Jim Rinaldi shoots a Net 65 for a 1 stroke win over Dan Price. In Match Play, Korleski defeats Ellis 4 & 2. Jim Petronchak has a Senior Moment when he picks up both his ball AND his ball marker while on the green. "That's a stroke baby!"

Group managed to avoid the predicted thunderstorms - just an infrequent light drizzle, and we had the course to ourselves. The 3 groups were spread out over the entire back 9 with the lead on 18 green followed by the 16th tee and bringing up the rear the final 4 on 13 tee. Jim Rinaldi, after recently threatening to quit the game rolled to his third victory in a row. He is loving life and his 12 handicap.

A lot of low scores for World Series. Rinaldi shoots even Par Gross for a Net 60 and a 1 shot victory over Frank Thirty. Petronchak finishes on the Beer Line but is the 2nd highest money winner! EIGHT guys had 3 Net Eagles! A lot of guys are paying money yet their handicaps could be going down. Korleski almost Aces #11 with a beautifully pulled skull shot into a tree that lands a foot from the cup. The Golf Gods got even by snapping the head off his 5 iron on the next Tee Box. Smith has a good Johnnie and Perry STILL has new shoes.

Weather Sunny, warm, high 80s

A sunny, warm day at Warrenbrook. Emerging from the last group was Larry Thiry. He had a best Net 30 on the front and combined with a Net 34 on the back was enough for a one shot victory. John Rutigliano although finishing second was the money winner by a narrow margin. He had 15 Net Birdies, 6 Net Eagles (one off the record set by him and John Perry) and a Net 6 on Par 3's. The other big winner was Jim Rinaldi taking the Birdies pot with 4 and a Gross 11 on Par 3's. There were 8 players sharing the Greens Pot and Ron Ceglia Jr steals the Sandy Pot with 1.

 Weather Mostly Sunny, Brief Shower, 70's

The start of the Up Yours North trip began at Apple Hill...sunny for the most part with a short shower in the middle of the round. Min Minutello shot better than his age with a gross 79, net 64 to win by 2 shots over Doug Conway. Luke Walters made an EAGLE on the 465 yard 10th hole hitting 4 Hybrid, 4 Hybrid, and made a 4 foot putt. Rich Fitzgerald didn't have a Net Birdie on the first 5 holes or the last 4 holes...but had 10 Net Birdies on the nine holes in between.

Neshanic Valley wasn't busy at all, but the bumpy, aerated greens sure made for some interesting bounces on putts. Dave Perry found his home course groove on the Lake 9 and cruised to a 3-shot victory on Bob Nowark. Jim Petronchak shoots 1 over par (ho-hum) with 3 birdies and 4 bogeys to win 2nd place money.

By the way, everyone appreciated the round that Mansour covered...no sarcasm.

A "top ten" day at Fox Hollow. The greens had been recently aerated so the greens were receptive but slower than usual. Doug Conway did a Mike Rolph and stepped out of the car after a 7 hour drive and shot Net 31 on the front 9...but was overtaken by Mansour Rismanchi who shot Net 66 for a 2 shot win. Thanks to Mansour for the round of drinks! Frank Thiry had a birdie on #9 for a Net 0!!! In Match Play, Reese Evans nipped Greg Cavallo 2 Up in a tight, back and forth match.

Another "top ten" day....but play bogged down with the Partners Match and rounds exceeded 5 hours for the last 5 groups....and scores were much higher than normal. Don Tucci was in one of the early groups and shot Net 65 for a 2 shot win over Rich Fitzgerald. No one else broke Net 70. In Partners, Jim Petronchak and Mike Rolph came from 7 points down after 4 holes to win +1 over The Bobbies. Ed Korleski said that his group took 46 tee shots on the front 9...that meant 10 Provisionals! There were 2 Johnmys - Bob Newark (31-42) and John Desimone (41-30)

Great weather today, probably the best since we've been come here. The course is in great shape. We were able to get the tee times moved up an hour and we finished with plenty of sun light left. Luke Wolters shoots by two strokes over Larry Thiry with a net 70 and continues his winning ways at Great Bear. It's his third win at Great Bear. The rest of the field didn't do much and not a sandie in the group. A good warm up round for World Series.

What would World Series Day be without a some bad weather. It was rainy but fortunately not too cold. Motivated by his Partners Match, Dan Price shoots an impressive Net 67 with a Gross 38 on the front 9 to take a one shot win. Dan jumped right out of the gate with a chippy/bride on #1 and sank a 25 foot birdie putt on #4. He ties the front with a Net 32, ties the Birdie pot with 2 and ties the GP3 with 16. Other highlights of the day Wally shoots a net 74, and Jim Rinaldi gets an Eagle on #6, driver, pitching wedge from about 105 yards.

Congratulations to Min Minutello for winning his record setting 6th World Series Championship. It was his record setting 22nd World Series Championship appearance. Congratulations and more to come from the Commissioner shortly.

In Partners Prices/Rutigliano beat Caglia Sr/Smith +14 and Fitzgerald/Caglia Jr beat Rolph/Petronchak +8. This will set up a Partners Final of Prices/Rutigliano vs. Fitzgerald/Caglia Jr.

Mansour started out hot, but couldn't hold on. Reese played steady throughout and gets the one shot win. Jim Rinaldi makes his second eagle in a week with a driver sand wedge on # 8...we saw it drop. Jim also hit the stick on the par 3 2nd hole, but it bounced off the green...it missed going in by inches.

Ed Korleski rebounds from a bad Front Nine and shoots Net 67 for a two stroke victory. Babetski Birdies #6 and now says that hole is EASY. Dan Price cards a 13 on #5, a result of pumping 4 balls into the creek. After the 3rd ball, he requested help with the math. There were three Johnny's out of the 20 players.

 Course Heron Glen - White (69 /125)
 Weather Sunny, Upper 70's

A beautiful afternoon on a very crowded golf course. Since we had 5 players, we were sent off as a twosome and threesome behind 2 Asian foursomes...who were playing from the Blue Tees. We expected to wait behind foursomes but the waits were getting longer and longer because of their slow play. On the 8th tee, the Ranger allowed us to play as a fivesome....and we still waited on every shot!! Through it all, Doug Conway shot Net 69 to win by 2 shots over Dan Price.

 Course Quail Brook OLD (69.2/118)
 Weather Partly Sunny, 70's

A very pleasant weather day at Quail Brook. The Blue Tees were back on a lot of holes and the course played like it normally should. A lot of ties in the POTS... 6 players with 1 birdie, 4 players with 1 net eagle, 5 players with 1 sandy. Dave Perry and Mike Jeffries tied for 1st with Net 72... despite Mike having his ball hit him while trying to hit out of the back trap on #4.

 Course Quail Brook OLD (69.2 /118)
 Weather Mostly Cloudy, Breezy, low 70s

The general feedback was that the breeze and pin positions contributed to higher than recent scores at Quail Brook. Tom Wrobel shot Net 70 to beat 3 players by 2 shots. In the Match Play Finals, Ed Korleski defeated Reese Evans 3 & 1...despite two 8's and an 11...true Match Play strategy! Congratulations, Ed!!!!
