IMPORTANT ENTRY DETAILS

You must also submit the 2019 Vallejo Juneteenth Certification Form, signed by your parent/guardian, teacher or youth group coordinator certifying this poster or essay is your own original work. Submissions received without this Certification Form will be disqualified. NOTE: The 2019 contest is open only to middle school students (grades 6th, 7th and 8th).

Teacher or Youth Group Coordinator or Parent/Guardian may provide guidance and critiques to student entrants but may not write the essay or design the poster. By submitting an entry, entrants agree that their entries constitute original works of creativity that do not violate the property rights of any other person.

I grant the 2019 Vallejo African American Juneteenth Family Reunion Committee (Juneteenth Committee) the right to exhibit, distribute, and otherwise use the entries in various media.

The Juneteenth Committee assumes no responsibility for essay or poster submissions. Winning entrants agree that the Juneteenth Committee has the right to use, without further permission and/or compensation, their drawings and/or essays for promotion of the Juneteenth Essay/Poster Contest or the Juneteenth Celebration, or any other related use. The submissions will not be returned. The Juneteenth Committee selection of the winners for the essay contest and poster contest is solely within its discretion; the Juneteenth Committee reserves the right to reject any or all entrants. By the act of entering the contest, all entrants agree that the Juneteenth Committee decision is final and binding. By making essay or poster submissions to the Juneteenth Committee, the winner agrees (1) that winner is acting as a volunteer, (2) that the Juneteenth Committee will own all property rights, including intellectual property rights, in the winner's essay or poster to be displayed or promoted as the 2019 Juneteenth Essay/Poster for distribution and publication in any existing or future form or forms and in any country or countries by the Juneteenth Committee, and that the essay or poster may be used in any form and may be disseminated or published, for free or for payment using any existing or future technology, for any purpose in perpetuity. Contest entrants consent to publication of their name and image on collateral materials created and distributed by the Juneteenth Committee, including but not limited to website, news releases, flyers, etc., in perpetuity.
