Machine Contract

The Underwood Typewriter

Portland Me Sept. 24th 1912

This Indenture Witnesseth:

That I Elthea Sterling have this day received of The Underwood Typewriter Company one Model 15/513878 Underwood Typewriter, and Typewriter Price Valued at $102.50 in good order and condition. I have this day paid to said Company Six dollars in paid rental and in cash Ten dollars and I agree to pay thereafter for 6^{1/2} months at the rate of (Ten) dollars per month payable on the 24th day of each succeeding month at its office, Portland Me.

It is now Agreed: That the title to said Typewriter shall remain in the Underwood Typewriter Co. until the full amount of $102.50, is paid. In case of default in any payment then the whole amount shall be considered due: That I am responsible for its value (the amount unpaid) in event of its loss, damage or destruction from any cause: That I will not sell, offer to sell, nor mortgage it, nor remove it from my established place of business, without the written consent of said Company: That I shall not have the right at any time to cancel this agreement, and will not hold the Underwood Typewriter Co. liable for any agreement not expressed in this Contract
