Introduction to Liturgy of the Word

- Deuteronomy 26:4–10 The Lenten fast, like the Exodus, leads to a land flowing with milk and honey.
- Psalms 91 “Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.”
- Romans 10:8–13 The journey of faith is open to all.
- Luke 4:1–13 The fast can be a sign that we live on more than bread.

Today and every Sunday we offer our gifts at the altar of the Lord. Today’s first reading narrates the reasons for the Chosen People’s gratitude to God, which lead them to offer firstfruits and thanksgiving to the LORD. Saint Paul assures the Romans that all who confess their faith and seek help from the Lord will be saved. Finally, we hear Jesus quote God’s words when he resists the devil’s temptations in the desert. Let us now listen to the word of God, knowing that in God’s word we find salvation.

The Sign of the Cross, Explained

“I claim you for Christ by the sign of his cross.” These words from the Rite of Baptism, spoken as the priest traces a cross on the infant’s forehead, perfectly communicate the significance of that simple, familiar action. In signing the cross, we claim ourselves again and again for Christ, unite ourselves with His sacrifice on Calvary, and confess his victory over death.

Christians have been making the sign of the cross since ancient times, as evidenced by writings from Tertullian, Hippolytus and St. Cyprian. The ritual action is not only an important component of formal liturgies and sacramental rites, but also a daily devotional practice whereby the faithful invoke the blessing and protection of God.

In the Latin rite, it is made either with a movement of the full hand from one’s forehead, breast and shoulders (going right to left) or with the thumb tracing the cross on the forehead, lips and breast.
