ABOUT TIMOLIN

Timolin Langin has become a millionaire on a teacher's salary. A veteran teacher, author, real estate investor, and world traveler, Timolin has built an impressive financial portfolio that includes eight properties in Los Angeles, one of the most expensive real estate markets in the country. With many years in the classroom, a multiple subject credential, and a B.A. in History and M.A. in Education, she is well prepared to teach and share from experience. Timolin's teachings cover the major impact emotional spending/overspending has on wealth building, specific tasks one can take to increase wealth and decrease debt through strategic spending and saving techniques, and advice on investments, entrepreneurship and more. She proves that financial success is less about actual income and more about effective money management, passion, purpose, and a zest for living. Timolin is the author of Mind Over Money: How to Live like a Millionaire on any Budget (Westbow Press, 2016),
