6.5 Bargaining unit members are entitled to inspect and copy their personnel file. The City will supply these documents as soon as reasonably possible.

ARTICLE 7

COMPLAINT AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

7.1 Complaint Procedure

The City provides a method for non-probationary employees to bring to the attention of management a complaint or dissatisfaction that the employee believes needs attention or adjustment. The Complaint Procedure does not apply to matters involving disciplinary actions, performance evaluation ratings, or to solve a personal problem with co-workers or policies. To file a complaint, employees must follow the Complaint Procedure as listed in Section 11 of the City's Personnel Policies.

7.2 Definition of Grievance

A grievance is a formal process to resolve claimed violations of this collective bargaining agreement.

7.3 Steps of the Grievance Process

Non-probationary bargaining unit members may file a grievance in accordance with the following procedures:

Step I

An aggrieved employee shall, within seven (7) calendar days of the incident, present his grievance in writing on the Employee Grievance Form to his immediate supervisor. Efforts to achieve a prompt, satisfactory resolution will be made. The supervisor shall meet with the employee within seven (7) calendar days of being notified, when practical. If the grievance is settled in this meeting, the supervisor will document a brief description of the resolution on the form and forward a copy to the Chief of Police and Personnel Director. If the grievance is not resolved during the meeting, the supervisor will notify the employee, Chief of Police and Personnel Director in writing of his decision within five (5) calendar days after the discussion with the employee.

Step II

If the aggrieved employee feels that the matter has not been resolved to his satisfaction by the immediate supervisor, the employee shall submit the matter in writing on the Employee Grievance Form to the Chief of Police within seven (7) calendar days. The Chief of Police will schedule a meeting with the employee within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the formal grievance. The Chief of Police will annotate on the Employee Grievance Form and note whether resolution of the grievance was achieved or not. If the matter remains unresolved, the Chief of Police shall also notify the employee and the Personnel Director in writing of his decision within five (5) calendar days after the discussion with the employee.

Step III

Should the aggrieved employee wish to pursue the grievance further, he shall, within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the Chief of Police's written decision, notify the Personnel Director, in writing on the Employee Grievance Form, of the desire to proceed. Such requests shall be accompanied by all facts, information and other documents relating to the grievance and the written answers. The Personnel Director shall assemble documents in order to provide the information packet to the City Manager. A hearing before the City Manager shall be scheduled within seven (7) calendar days by the Personnel Director. Employees, their representatives and witnesses, and the Chief of Police shall have the right to appear before the City Manager for the purpose of presenting relative facts and information. Within seven (7) calendar days following the hearing, the City Manager shall issue a written decision to all parties concerned and any action or relief that is ordered. The decision of the City Manager shall be final. The parties may extend the time frames outlined in this Step if both sides mutually agree in writing.

7.4 General Provisions

- A. The time limits established in Section 8.3 may be extended, at the request of either party, under reasonable circumstances such as illness, business trips, or emergency.
- B. Under this grievance procedure, the employee and management have the option to call witnesses at any point.
- C. Bargaining unit members may have a representative from the bargaining unit present at all steps in the grievance process.
- D. An employee who fails to meet the time limits as set forth in Section 8.3 or fails to be present for any scheduled meeting without valid reason constitutes a withdrawal of grievance. Failure of the City to answer within the time limit set forth will advance the grievance to the next step.
- E. Any grievance shall be conclusively settled and closed at the completion of any step unless it is appealed within the time limits set forth herein.

ARTICLE 8

CONTRACT DISPUTES

8.1 The City may utilize the following procedure upon any contract dispute with the Association or with any member represented by the Association and covered by this agreement.

- a. The dispute will be submitted in writing to the Association President.

- b. If no satisfactory adjustment is obtained within 8 calendar days, then the City shall have the right to submit the contract dispute to an impartial neutral, agreed upon by both the Association and the City. If, within 8 calendar days, the City and the Association cannot agree upon the selection of a neutral party to resolve the dispute, then such neutral party shall be selected in accordance with the rules and provisions of the Federal Mediation & Conciliation Service.
- c. The decision of the impartial neutral shall be binding upon both parties.
- d. The neutral shall have no power to alter, amend, add to, or detract from the language of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 9

EMPLOYEE SECURITY

- 9.1 Unfounded complaints will be indicated as such in a bargaining unit member's personnel file.
- 9.2 If a Police Officer is suspended during a criminal investigation, he may, at the sole discretion of the City Manager, continue to be paid at his normal rate until reinstatement, resignation, conviction, or termination.
- 9.3 All personnel records of employees shall be maintained in accordance with applicable laws. Information exempt from public disclosure pursuant to Chapter 119, Florida Statutes or other applicable laws shall only be released to the public in accordance with such laws.

Notice of such extension shall be furnished in writing to the unit member prior to the completion of the probationary period.

11.3 Any approved leave of absence in excess of 10 days shall cause the bargaining unit member's probationary period to be extended by the amount equal to the leave taken. In the event a unit member returns to light duty, the probationary period will be extended until the unit member returns to full duty. Upon the unit member's return, the probation will resume and continue until fully completed.

11.4 Newly hired unit members, on probationary status, shall not have recourse with a grievance procedure in any matter of discipline, termination for cause, and layoff due to reduction in force.

12.3 Procedure: Reduction in force by layoff shall be in order of seniority with the unit member with the least seniority being laid off first. Layoff shall include the right of senior members of the bargaining unit in higher ranked positions to "bump" or roll back members of the bargaining unit in lower classifications who possess less seniority. Recall shall be in reverse order of layoff. Members will be offered the opportunity to return to a higher rank after a roll back and will not be subject to additional testing. This return to a previous rank shall be in the order in which the members vacate the rank (first out is first to return). There is no option to "pass" on a return to rank until a later period. If a member rejects a return to rank, the member will have to compete for a future promotional vacancy. Notice of recall shall be sent by hand delivery, certified mail, or other appropriate manner to the laid off unit member at his last known address. If the unit member fails to respond within five (5) calendar days from the date of receiving the notice of recall confirming his intent to return within another five (5) calendar days, he shall not be entitled to recall or further recall rights. A unit member will be kept on the callback list for one (1) year. After this period, the unit member shall have no right to recall. No new bargaining unit members shall be hired until all members of the bargaining unit on layoff have been returned or given the opportunity to return to work.

The City will not recognize any Association Representative whose name does not appear on the appropriate list. Where a unit member requests Association representation, the representative shall be a person so selected and designated by the Association and have the authority to resolve the grievance.
