

LION'S SUMMER SCHOOL CAMP FOR VISUALLY IMPAIRED

The 2021 Wyoming Lions Summer School for the Visually Impaired is Sunday, June 27th, through Friday, July 3rd, on Casper Mountain. This Camp experience is hosted by the Wyoming Lions Foundation and the Montgomery Trust Foundation and is open to visually impaired individuals age 8-18. There is no charge to attend. Allen H. Stewart Lions Camp is nestled in the pines of Casper Mountain at 8,000 feet elevation, just nine miles from downtown Casper, Wyoming. The mission of the summer school staff is to incorporate the Expanded Core Curriculum for visually impaired students into a fun “summer camp” experience in a beautiful setting. If you are ready to make new friends, discover new interests and hobbies, learn new skills and have an awesome time... this is the place for you!!!
