December Director's Message

We lost a good motorcycle friend last week. Dennis English passed after a brief illness and will be missed at our meetings and activities. Dennis was always willing to help when someone needed assistance with a project or solving a bike problem. He always had a story or joke to share with us. Our heartfelt regrets are sent to his wife Karen.

We had a joint luncheon with IA-O at the Filling Station in Bishop Hill on Friday, November 21, with 14 attending. After a good lunch and lots of conversations, several of us went to the Colony Store for some shopping. Many found the candy counter while others looked at the many Swedish Christmas ornaments. We picked up five packages of Swedish Potato Baloney for Christmas. Our son and family will be joining us for Christmas, and they love the Baloney (a traditional treat at our house).

Although we had good attendance for our Chapter Christmas Party on December 3, the weather was cold with snow on the ground. Our dinner was held at the Packinghouse in Galesburg. As people arrived, they were asked to select a Christmas hat to wear for the evening and take home to enjoy later. Next, Alvah provided everyone with a game to match 20 Christmas song lyrics with the title of the song. There was much humming and soft singing as everyone worked to match them. The games were then collected, and a drawing was made for four lucky individuals. They were each awarded a "handsome" Christmas sweater that can be seen on the next page! Congratulations to Donna W, Bev, Ken, and Dan.

After a very nice meal selected from the menu, we continued conversations and stories. The tables had been decorated with 18" decorated, lighted Christmas trees that were given to each couple or individual attending the party. Thanks to everyone for attending and making our chapter Christmas party special.

We wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a joyous Happy New Year.

Until Next Time, Be Safe,
Lanny & Carolyn, Chapter Directors
