

ETTA WASIK

1931-1993

Etta Wasik, 61, a native of Sebowaing and a resident of Arizona for the past 30 years, died Sunday, April 4, in Sun City, AZ, following an illness of several years.

She was born in Sebowaing on Nov. 25, 1931, the daughter of Joseph, Sr. and Henrietta Bang. She had lived in Sun City for many years. She visited Sebowaing for the last time in 1990 when she attended a reunion of her high school class members.

Mrs. Wasik is survived by a number of nieces and nephews and friends, many here in Sebowaing.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Joseph Sr. and Henrietta Bang, a brother, Joseph, Jr., and a daughter, Lynn Marie.

A memorial service was held in Arizona, and following cremation her remains were sent to Sebowaing for burial in the United Methodist Cemetery, Sebowaing.
