

Who May Dwell, REVISED song by Clare duBois

October 11, 2016

Who may dwell, who may dwell, in Your holy tent?

He who walks righteously speaking truth from the heart.
He who rejects dishonest gain, and stops his ears against plots of destruction,
Who shuts his eyes against contemplating evil, who slanders not his neighbor, nor harms another.

And never defames a friend.

Who may dwell, who may dwell, on Your holy mountain?

He who refuses to contemplate harming his brother,
And keeps his tongue from evil, never using his lips to deceive.
He who harbors not bitter envy and selfish ambition, who keeps his heart free of judgment,
And always speaks well of others.

You will dwell on the heights, never to be shaken.
You will dwell on the heights, never to be shaken.

He who forgives offenses and is quick to confess his own fault.
Who is lenient with the shortcomings of his brother, swift to correct the error of his own ways.
He who spends not his life on worldly gain and pleasure, but looks after the needs of the poor,
And the alien in his midst.

He who cares nothing for the praises of men, nor courts their favor,
But considers his ways before God and seeks only His favor.

You will dwell, on the heights, never to be shaken.
You will dwell, on the heights, never to be shaken.

He who gives thanks when things go well, as well as when things go badly.
Who entrusts His life to the wisdom of the Almighty.
He who forms no complaints in his heart, nor utters a deprecating word.
But makes his heart a tabernacle of Praise and Thanksgiving to the Most High God,
Always giving thanks for His benefits.

He will dwell on the heights and never be shaken.
Your refuge will be the mountain fortress.
Your bread will be supplied and water will not fail you.
Your eyes will see the King in His Beauty,
And view a land that stretches afar.

You will dwell on the heights, never to be shaken.
You will dwell on the heights, never to be shaken
