Special Program featuring Local Authors, Kathleen M. Rodgers and Arman Rezaee

Please join us at the 2023 Friends of the Colleyville Public Library Annual Meeting. A short business meeting will precede the evening's special program. You'll have a chance to visit with Kathleen Rodgers and Arman Rezaee and purchase their books after the program.

Meet the Authors

Born in The Land of Enchantment, Kathleen M. Rodgers is a novelist whose work has appeared in Family Circle Magazine, Military Times, and in several anthologies. Her fourth novel, The Flying Cutterbucks, was named a 2022 New Mexico Press Women Zia Book Award 1st Runner-up and a 2021 WILLA Literary Award Finalist in Contemporary Fiction from Women Writing the West. She's been featured in USA Today, The Associated Press, and many other publications.

A native of Clovis, New Mexico, Kathleen resides in Colleyville, Texas and has completed her fifth novel. In 2014, Rodgers was named a Distinguished Alumna from Tarrant County College/NE Campus. She is working on her sixth novel and likes to say, "I am always the daughter trying to write my way home."

Arman Rezaee (AvMP) is an Operations Manager at American Airlines. He enjoys finding solutions to recent aviation challenges and has realized three patented inventions in the field of Weight and Balance Planning, Cost Index and Fuel Management. He has earned more than ten diplomas and certificates from IATA, FAA and other industry key players so far.

Arman has visited more than fifty airports around the world and enjoys analyzing today's approaches in Airline Operations. He has also established and managed Fuel Management Department in two international Airlines.
