

What do participants in Home & Community-Based Waiver programs (IRIS, Family Care, and CLTS) have in common?

- They meet functional & financial eligibility requirements to qualify for long-term care services.
- They want to live safe, healthy, and connected lives in their homes in the community.
- They need reliable & well-trained direct care workers.
- They are caught in a Caregiver Crisis and need help.

What do HCBS Waiver Participants need from their state senators and representatives?

A state budget that addresses the caregiver crisis in a fair and equitable way with language that reflects a commitment to all long-term care participants: IRIS, Family Care, and CLTS.

A crisis for one is a crisis for all and so must be the long-term solutions.
