

The Baseball Warehouse is hosting a college showcase on July 29th in Baltimore, MD. We will have 15-20 colleges representing programs from NCAA division I, II, III and junior college. Position players will run 60's twice, get opportunities to field and throw from the outfield and infield, catcher pop times and take two rounds of batting practice on the field. Pitchers will throw 20 pitches or to five hitters in a controlled scrimmage. Players will have the opportunity to talk with and receive feedback from the coaches in attendance throughout the day. The showcase will end with a recap from all coaches on staff and a question and answer session. Players will receive measurables from the event.

"The Baseball Warehouse showcase in Baltimore displayed strong talent from the state of Maryland. It gives college coaches the ability to evaluate talent in an efficient and structured environment. It will be on our recruiting calendar for years to come!"

-Matt Swope
Head Baseball Coach University of Maryland

"The Baseball Warehouse put on a very well organized showcase and provided detailed information on all of the players attending the event. It is evident that Matt and his staff care about each of their players in their program and strives to help them advance to the next level."

-Mike LaRosa
Head Baseball Coach West Chester University

"The Baseball Warehouse does an excellent job getting high school student athletes in front of the RIGHT college coaches. They run outstanding showcases, events, and camps that allow college programs to give feedback to young players. I would highly recommend any baseball player consider attending The Baseball Warehouse showcases. The player development, college coach connections and great atmosphere make it the right place for all amateur baseball players."

-John Merkh
Assistant Baseball Coach/Recruiting Coordinator Neumann University
