

Local Government Leaders to Cuba

Global Relations Travel Club has organized unique visits regarding local government services to the Republic of Cuba for elected, appointed & retired officials, staff and friends. The tours adhere to U.S. Department of Treasury Office of Foreign Assets Control rules and regulations for legal travel by U.S. citizens.

A substantive itinerary proven to be appreciated by hosts and participants is available

*Old Havana, travel to the western rural region, return to Havana; experience 7 days & 6 nights, or a tour can be modified for a long weekend in Havana.

*Participate in substantive local government related interactions with professionals and Cuban people.

*Included: Cuban hotel lodging, most meals (at private restaurants – paladares), ground transportation, site visits, guide, coach driver, pre-departure briefing e mails and memories of a lifetime.

*Host selects the dates.

*A dedicated webpage for the Host's Private Tour with itinerary, pricing, FAQ and on line registration capability.

*Unique: Vintage American car caravan, private cooking lesson, Hemingway's home, cigar factory, tobacco farm & an appropriate balance between structured activities and independent time.

Plan & Schedule a Tour to Cuba:

Eight participants is minimum. We have accommodated much larger groups, per the host's request. Factors in pricing are time of the year and number of participants. Tours are being booked for 2018 and 2019. Contact directly:

DanRutherford@GlobalRelations.US

“Our Illinois Municipal League partnered with Global Relations Travel Club for a Municipal Leaders trip to Cuba 2 years in a row. They were very successful and enjoyed.” Brad Cole, Executive Director, Illinois Municipal League, 217-525-1220

The island is going to change. There is much to learn, see and experience in Cuba. Timing is important.