

NJORTC Minutes Sunday, October 22, 2017 2 PM at DeLizia's Pizza Hosted by Paul & Harriett LoPiccolo (36 attended)

Vice Pres. Arlene Kubat opened the meeting at 2:15pm and thanked Paul & Harriett for hosting this meeting. (Pat was not in attend until later) They are moving to Daniel Island, SC from Brooklyn shortly. She introduced a guest, Chris, with a '57 T-Bird. Then birthdays & anniversaries for October were mentioned. Sandy Pyrros read the minutes and the treasurer's report (balance $11,113.72) since Steve Handy was not present. Both were accepted as read. Correspondence-Lois Martin said that the CT club still had a check for $200 that they wanted to donate to our club for the convention but she told them to forward a check to Knoxville for their convention. Sunshine-Arlene mentioned that Joanne Seiler's dad passed away. John Pyrros said that Alec Johnstone was getting better & that he sold his '57 grey bird.

CTCI report-Lois Martin; CTCI scheduled the board meeting date for January 12, 2018.

Newsletter-Paul Schroll: Working on November newsletter. Anyone can volunteer to write a short story about the Fall Cruise. Donna was approached to write an article.

Membership-Paul Adamoff spoke to and gave out membership packs at a show in Riverdale.

It was mentioned that Rich Martin was in an accidental "rollover" in his race car at the track and luckily is OK. Lois showed photos of the car and it was pretty much wrecked!

Donna Jesse spoke about driving the birds to Knoxville to add mileage to try and win the Ford/Johnson mileage award. 4 clubs are in the running. Our club needs 12 cars to drive. Please be sure to make your hotel reservation soon. South Jersey club mentioned that perhaps they'd like to drive along with our club.

Voting was held for the position of club President and CTCI representative. Since only 1 member was nominated for each position, according to club by-laws, secretary Sandra Pyrros cast her vote for Pat LeStrange for President and Toni Sabino for CTCI representative.

Arlene thanked Phil & Dorothy Guidone for once again planning and executing a very successful and fun Fall Cruise!

Paul Schroll mentioned that another $50 was added to the Convention treasury.

Members please take note; Arlene said that the Xmas party date has changed to be on Saturday, December 2, 2017 at Bella Italia restaurant in Orange, NJ, 5:30pm to 10pm. Cost $65 per couple or $32.50 pp. Beer, wine & soda included, cash bar for other drinks. Toys for Tots. Grab bag, $25 gift-bring one/get one. Mark gift whether for male or female or either. Please make your reservation & submit payment to her ASAP or by the next meeting.

Next meeting is on November 12th to be hosted by Dot & Bill Hyde, 2 pm at DeLizia Pizza.

Meeting adjourned at 2:55 pm.

50/50 won by Toni Sabino $50.
