

THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

I am so thrilled that the Woman's Club was able to gift San Antonio College Empowerment Center ten $1,000 scholarships. Pictured above, President Jane Stone, Scholarship Chairman Sandra Whittaker, Vice President Virginia Van Cleave, and member Helen Henderson presented Dr. Mary Helen Vera, Director, and Dr. Robert Vela, President of San Antonio College, with a $10,000 check. Two days later, we went to SAC again to be part of their ceremony where the scholarships were given to the students. The students were so excited to receive the scholarships.

I am pleased that we now have a working relationship with SAC. They allow us to use their auditorium for our Coronations at no cost, and in turn, we support their students by giving scholarships.

Dr. Vela and Dr. Vera presented the Woman's Club with a beautifully engraved vase in appreciation for our support. The engraving says, "presented to THE WOMAN'S CLUB OF SAN ANTONIO—San Antonio College—In appreciation for your dedication and commitment to our students." It will be a treasure for the Mansion.

I am so excited! We now have a brand new parking lot! It is something that I have wanted for a long time for the safety of our members and guests. Our House Chairman, Susan Gargotta, made it happen. We now call it the Stone-Gargotta parking lot. It will be appreciated for years to come.

Jane Stone, Susan Gargotta, & the paving contractor inspect the finished product – where you will park on your next visit to the Club!

One more piece of good news: The numbers are in from our Fiesta Hat Show. We made more money from this Hat Show than we ever made before. Who would have ever thought that we would do so well after being totally closed two year ago due to Covid. We should feel very blessed.

It seems somewhat surreal for me to be writing my last president's message for the newsletter. I am completing my two-year term as President of the Woman's Club. I call myself the Covid President. By that, I mean that nothing was normal or the same, and everything was always changing. When I started, the club was closed and there was no staff or members around. The house was dark and empty. The first thing I did was to go to all of the vendors of the club and asked for a discounted price. To my surprise, I got it. I was most pleased to get the elevator service reduced by a thousand dollars a year. Through all of this, I am very proud of my Board of Directors. They signed up and took turns working in the club office 3 hours a day. They dusted the furniture, scrubbed the floors and cleaned the toilets. I forwarded the club phone to my cell phone and I took all of the calls 24/7. Everyone went over and beyond and made the best out of a bad situation.

The city finally allowed groups to start meeting with restrictions. We sanitized door handles, elevator buttons, signed waivers, wore masks, and sat everyone 6' apart. We used our tape measures and measured 6' between the chairs. We used paper goods at our luncheons instead of china and silverware. Our big events in 2020, like the Fall Luncheon and Christmas Faire were canceled. However, Dona Liston and Michael Quintanilla came and did a beautiful job decorating the Mansion for Christmas 2020. Dona brought her big Santa and sat him in front of the Christmas tree. Little by little we were able to work our way back to what was somewhat normal. By Christmas 2021, we were back and Janice McGraw turned the Mansion into a Christmas Wonderland.

Again, I can't say enough about my board. To me, they are the best board ever and certainly the hardest working board. They have made good decisions. At every meeting there were issues they needed to discuss and address. They realized the importance of attending the meetings because they were the ones who would move this club forward.

The homeless were always a big problem for us. I made friends with the people in the coffee shop across the street. They would call me if they saw something irregular happening at the club after hours. I am very proud of the safety enclosure our House Chairman, Susan Gargotta, thought to put up across the back of the house to keep the homeless off of the back porches. They loved making the back porches their home. They left their trash, broke things and their behavior was often times concerning.

I am so happy that we have Tina Zimmerman as our House Supervisor and Chef. The house looks so clean and organized and her meals are delicious. We hope that she loves us enough to continue her services for a long time. She is definitely a golden nugget.

I also want to thank our members for stepping up and loving and supporting their club. We need many helping hands to make our monthly meetings and major events throughout the year a success.

Last but not least, I would like to thank my Vice President, Virginia Van Cleave. We have worked together so well. She has been respectful to me as President and always willing to help. We always carried our cell phones on our hip and felt free to call each other day or night. That's what it took to get this club through the unprecedented last two years.

The Golden Girls Luncheon -

A special time for members and the Golden Girls we honored.

Thank you to our hostesses, the Noontide Round Table, for a wonderful party and this Woman's Club tradition. The celebration filled the first floor of the Woodward mansion where the tables were decorated with flowers and balloons provided by Chula Boyle. Ginger Vlieger was at the reception table ensuring each Golden Girl received her handmade corsage and that her portrait was taken by Vickie Kinder. Guests were treated to a showcase of memory books/bios of our Golden Girls through the efforts of Gail Jarratt.

Following a blessing led by Betty Lewandowski, guests enjoyed a lovely, social luncheon gathering. Angela Pfeiffer and her kitchen team produced a wonderful lunch for over 90 people. Patte Pfeiffer helped with plating and making everything coming out of the kitchen a beautiful presentation. Robin Templeton played music that set the tone for the special day.

With all the talk about a labor shortage in America today, our Golden Girls were honored by being served by doctors. We thank newly graduated Pharmacists, Dr. Briden McGraw and Dr. Sabra Atkinson, for volunteering to help serve and clear for this luncheon as they are ready for a career of service in their field.

This year a special raffle was part of the luncheon. Noontide chairman, Janice McGraw donated a diamond necklace. Marshall Stone assisted with the acquisition and setting of the diamond. Thanks to the many members and friends who bought tickets, proceeds of the raffle will endow the Noontide Round Table with funds supporting future Golden Girls celebrations.

A Special Portrait Has Been Dedicated for the Presidents' Room

At the May 2022 General Meeting, the Club was presented with a painting of Laura Sistrunk (1923-2017), Life Member, Patron and benefactor. The portrait was painted by Neka Scarborough-Jenkins. With the presentation, Tawana Timberlake shared stories of both the lady in the painting and the lady who painted the portrait. Following are excerpts from Tawana's presentation:

Laura Sistrunk joined the Woman's Club in 1988, serving tirelessly for 29 years. She was always an enthusiastic participant at any of our events, whether it was as a sexy flapper or sporting an angelic poodle skirt, she always delighted all with her choice of attire. But mostly she was known for her hats, and her classic and elegant style, but with a bit of sass! Though never holding the office of president of the Club, she served on many boards and Round Tables.

Laura loved the Woodward mansion and she loved its history. She believed in the purpose of this Club. Her tireless support wherever, whenever needed is well known. She provided financial support including finishing the elevator purchase, the final check for the completion of the driveway under porte cochere, the work on the back of the house and much more. Her generosity continues to this day. Laura's $150K endowment collects interest annually which goes to the Restoration Fund for the house, with principal intact, as per her instructions.

On the day Laura's daughter gave the painting to Tawana, her daughter said that since her mother's heart and soul was with the Club for almost 30 years, the Club was the perfect place for the painting to be. She told Tawana that she was so glad Tawana organized the dedication that she wanted her to have the white hat mother is wearing in the painting.

Neka Scarborough-Jenkins, the painter and a skilled photographer, took many photos at club events after joining in 2012. Her mother, Nan Sistrunk, joined the Woman's Club to spend quality time with her daughter at these events. Tawana asked Neka, "What inspired you to paint Laura? Was it the fact that she had the same last name as your mom Nan Russell Sistrunk, or was that just a coincidence?" Neka's written response included:

"I think there are no such things as coincidences. Laura Sistrunk and my dear departed mama, Nan Russell Sistrunk, became fast friends as soon as they were introduced, since they both married extraordinary Sistrunk men who may or may not have been related in their ancestry. I loved watching them talk and talk with their eyes sparkling like two teenage girls, chattering about their boyfriends, in spite of the fact that they were octogenarians." ...and...

"On the day Laura whisked by me in her crisp white suit with the whimsical red boa and sassy hat, I stopped her and asked permission to take her picture, she swirled around and gave me the relaxed yet confident pose you see in my painting. Of course, I was inspired to paint her. It had already been painted in my mind, where the image of Laura and her inspiration to all remains to this day."

Round Table News

In May the American Home & Garden Round Table took a field trip to the San Antonio Museum of Art. Their tour started with a viewing of the marble Roman bust that was purchased at a Goodwill store in Austin and found to be authentic. The bust has been on loan to SAMA and will be returned to its German home next year. The American Home and Garden Round Table ladies were then treated to a docent led tour of the Asian Art Exhibit. This tour through the Asian Art Wing consisted of works from the Japanese, Southeast Asian, Korean, Chinese, Imperial China and Early China cultures.

Lunch followed at Tre Trattoria. It was a beautiful day for the tour and lunch.

OLD SPANISH TRAIL

The Old Spanish Trail Centennial Celebration Association met in late 2021 to discuss the Centennial with local interested organizations. An invitation was sent to The Woman's Club and vice president Virginia Van Cleave attended. In the early 1900s the Old Spanish Trail (OST) movement was organized to promote a paved automobile highway across the southern United States connecting 6 centers of historical interest.: St. Augustine, San Antonio, El Paso, Tucson and San Diego. In December 1915, in Mobile, Alabama, interested parties met to connect New Orleans to the east coast of Florida. In July, 1919, a conference was held in San Antonio to lead movement across Texas. Harral Ayres was chosen as the Managing Director, and the Gunter Hotel would be the headquarters. June to December 1922, Mr. Ayres was in Washington D.C. gathering signatures of senators and congressman to declare the OST a basic trunk line of the US system assuring that every mile of the OST be included in Federal Aid management. In March 27, 1924 Texas Gov. Pat Neff dedicated a zero-mile marker stone of OST on San Antonio City Hall grounds. Today, the goal of this association is to implement the 1924 reenactment in 2024. They want local organizations to participate in this effort. Local Women's clubs organized the event in 1924 and the stone marker was signed by Mrs. Beretta, the president of the San Antonio Women's Federation, Inc. More information to come. EDITOR'S NOTE

Today I close my biennium as editor of Rustling Leaves, the newsletter of the Woman's Club of San Antonio. My term would not have lasted two weeks without the help, guidance and encouragement of so many of you in the Woman's Club.

Patsy Pelton welcomed me to the position with a complete notebook and a "thumb drive" listing the responsibilities, sharing traditional calendars, and providing several years of samples of so many wonderful versions of your newsletter. With her help you remained unaware of many of my spelling and grammar gaffes, while you were informed of important coming events that I would not, on my own, have known to include. Thank you, Patsy for being a wonderful mentor and for making sure that our members who do not use email received paper copies of our publication every month.

Virginia Van Cleave always made sure I had the information needed for you my readers to be enthusiastically informed of all the wonderful programs coming to the Woman's Club. TicketLeap links and menus worked with Tina Zimmerman's input became standard copy. Virginia, I hope you are pleasantly surprised that I FINALLY made the fit to publish your article on the Old Spanish Trail. The centennial of the dedication of the Trail will occur during your term as president of our Club and we look forward to learning more about the coming reenactment of its dedication. Best wishes on your biennium as President of the Woman's Club of San Antonio.

Jane Stone's insights, presentations and important messages have begun every issue of the newsletter this biennium. Thank you, Jane for your flexibility and for reviewing and approving each issue as we went along over these months. Thank you also for your encouragement and for always providing great photographs to include with your letter and elsewhere in the newsletter. It was quite a trip through the Covid constraints but you always made so much happen and reopen again.

I cannot hope to recount all of the members who supported their monthly official communique with photographs, stories, advertisements and round table event reports. Many thanks to Trace Mahbubani, Karin Fee and Tina Zimmerman for ensuring the electronic version of Rustling Leaves was distributed to you, dear reader.

And now for the future ~ several of us rascals retiring from the board are behaving like seniors before commencement. My plans include to first, pay my 2022-'23 dues, get it out of the way and forget about it. Second, for the coming biennium I plan to: meet and welcome every new member; wear more hats; join a new Round Table; and, support others as I have been supported. And finally, I am so happy to welcomeCarolynn Snyder (who always made your newsletter available at the WCSA website) back to the position of Editor of the Rustling Leaves newsletter!
