Imaginative vocal improvisations, March 9, 2014

By Grady Harp (Los Angeles, CA United States) - See all my reviews

This review is from: Promises to Burn \(MP3 Music\)

Imaginative vocal improvisations Borla is a vocalist with a reputation for taking chances. What she effectively does on this collection is elevate jazz vocals from the realm of vocalist with rhythm section and tone color support to a fully integrated instrumental ensemble. Her voice is warm and pliant, capable of everything from a low croon to high fireworks. But simply having a pliable and variable repertoire and a voice to match doesn't seem to satisfy Janice Borla. Her choice of songs is often a sticking point when putting a recording project together. Borla has selected eight compositions that are anything but run-of-the-mill. She and her fine band are expertly tuned and thoroughly schooled in the effective assimilation of vocals into the egalitarian environment of the jazz ensemble.

The ensemble here consists of Janice Borla, vocals, Scott Robinson, tenor saxophone, flute, Art Davis, trumpet, flugelhorn, John McLean, guitars, Bob Bowman, bass, and Jack Mouse, drums.

The considered selections are the following tracks:

- Funkallero
- Midnight Voyage
- Some Other Time
- Lennie's Pennies
- Silver Hollow
- You Don't Know What Love Is
- Runferyerlife
- If You Could See Me Now

This is terrific jazz music making form a queen of scat as well as pure vocal beauty in communicating the emotions of the Lyrics. Her ensemble couldn't be better. Another winner, here. Grady Harp, March 14
