We are your hometown church: Faithful to Tradition, Loving in Fellowship & Reaching for Tomorrow!

September 2021

“Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice.” (Philippians 4:4)

Friends,

It is hard to believe that we are over a month removed from my first week here at Mars-UP. That first week was a whirlwind as I began learning names and faces in the midst of the organized chaos known as Vacation Bible School. Much has happened since then. I have learned about and joined the superhero squad known as the A-Team. We held the church picnic at the Adams Township Park accompanied by some terrific music. We have worshipped together. We have comforted those who are mourning, prayed for those who are sick, and made countless connections within the body of Christ. I have met many of you and had begun to learn your stories as I have shared with you my own. It has been a busy month. I am excited that the energy of that first week at VBS has carried over in magnificent ways to the work we have been doing this past month.

Much of the work over this past month has been behind the scenes work. The committees have taken on ambitious projects and are committed to carrying out the work of the church. I rejoice at how fruitful their labors have been. We are beginning Sunday school in just a few weeks for all age groups. We are starting a youth group program from scratch with our friends at the St. John Lutheran Church. We are creating a new bible study opportunity geared towards young adults and young families. We are continuing the ministries that currently foster and serve our congregation. We are thinking outside the box and trying some new things. There are many new and exciting things happening at Mars-UP this fall!

As we go about striving to do the work of Jesus I encourage you, sisters and brothers, to keep the assurances of Philippians 4 in your hearts. “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near” (vs. 4-5) In all things rejoice in the Lord! In all the work we do, in all the efforts we take, in all of our success and failures, rejoice in the Lord always. Friends we are going to try new things even as we hold onto the traditions that make us who we are. In trying new things sometimes, we will fail, and that’s OKAY. There is grace in our failings. Let your gentleness be known to all. Be kind, merciful, and loving. And remember The Lord is near! God has drawn near to us and is with us. He is walking with us today!

I am so excited at the opportunities that lie ahead of us as we continue to follow the path God has laid out for us. There is much that we will do together, and this is cause for me to rejoice! Finally, I’ll leave you today with the familiar words found in the next two verses of Philippians, “Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your request be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.” (vs. 6-7)

Blessings,
Pastor Brian
